FROM VICKISA: Last time to see Xander Weaver

Skull’s show in the Backroom Gallery at the Station House in Point Reyes Station…Closed Wed. I hung this show. And I really like these large animal images. I saw Larry Carlin at Hardly Strictly Bluegrass and he told me that On Sunday, October 13th, from 5-6 p.m., Keystone Crossing (Larry Carlin and Claudia Hampe) will be making its Station House debut in West Marin County with special guests Dana Rath sittin’ in on mandolin and fiddle, and Markie Sanders on bass. We’ll be playing a mix of country and bluegrass songs. He is excited about me too. I love these Sundays free music good food and company.

Mon. at 7 am I arrived at the Southend Rowing club for the ceremony and then cooking lunch for the Indians that swarm from Alcatraz and their supporters (60 folks) it was very inspiring. It made me think about my friend, like Hartmann show and I think it will be good to see. In honor of the 50th anniversary of the Native American occupation of Alcatraz and like was there. There will be photos and a slideshow Thursday, October 10th 6:30 to 8:30 PM with refreshments. at the Point Reyes library meeting room with refreshments. at the Point Reyes Library meeting room.

While my roomie in the city has out of town company using my bedroom, I’m looking for a spot or spots to land while I am preparing for two upcoming benefits in West Marin.

So, if you feel like company anytime during Oct. 17-23, call me at my cell phone: (510) 323-6210 Yes, I am an old school houseguest, willing to pitch in where needed. (cooking and clean-up - or how’s your garden doing before the rains hit?)

FARMSTAND SHOW!

Please Join us this Friday, Oct 11th!

I will be coming out of early retirement to finally play a few tunes since the babes were born. It should be a promising evening with new and old tunes I've drummed up. Gospel Flat Farmstand will be dreamy as usual, surrounded with its harvest beauty and pumpkins galore! I will be starting the evening off at 8pm sharp- stay for touring bands Half Shadow, Gossimer and Briana Marela. Hope to see some of you there!

-Van Waring (Van Wah and the One Van Band)

Roughing it is kind of spiritual, said local tree cutter Jerrund Bojeste, "It's not PG&E that is the light. It's the inner light of our own heart, the love light," Bojeste said before firing up a chain saw and felling a cypress on Grove Road that a homeowner didn't want near his family. Without electricity, he said, "people go back to that earthly diviness. It's only because we are told we need electricity that we use it." -Submitted by JEFF MANION

West Marin’s Best
On October 4th my fellow USF classmates and I got together to create another Free Food Friday, but this time I was in charge! This week I worked on my final project by taking the lead overall but especially in the tamale making. I was very excited to have this opportunity to share something with the community that I have been doing for years with my grandmother. I had endless conversation with her prior to making the dough because I wanted to make sure I got them just right!

Although there were some bumps in the road getting the tamales out on time, the process of making them was so much fun. Seeing everyone learn something new and enjoying the process made everything worth it, and don’t worry if you come back in a couple of weeks you’ll get to try them too! And back by popular demand here is my Dad’s coleslaw recipe that he lives by. I’m glad you all enjoyed it and hope you get to make some soon. Thank you all again for coming out this past week and we hope to see you again on the 18th for some more delicious food!

Pricila Serratos, USF
