Thanksgiving at the Community Center

3 TURKEY COOKS NEEDED

We are still looking for turkey cooks for our Community Thanksgiving Dinner.

We provide the turkey, you pick it up at the General Store, and bake it using your favorite stuffing recipe, then bring it to the Community Center on Thanksgiving afternoon, about 4pm.

At 5pm, we will start our festive dinner.

Does anyone know how to prepare a delicious, beautiful looking vegetarian center-of-table dish?

Everyone over 12 years, please bring a potluck dish for 10-12 people.

Bring your own wine, we will have water, juice, tea and coffee.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP PREPARE THE COMMUNITY CENTER FOR THANKSGIVING?

We will meet on Thanksgiving morning at 11am and decorate the room, set the tables, cook food in the kitchen. We need good cooks, prep cooks etc.

Could someone donate flowers? We also need kinling, and firewood.

When the evening is over, we need help in the kitchen, people who can stay up late.

The kitchen has to be pristine for the next day.

THANKSGIVING IN THE BOLINAS COMMUNITY CENTER has been celebrated for over 50 years. There are pictures in the Museum of the Tacherra family and other townspeople celebrating in our Community Center.

It is a wonderful day, and every aspect of it, the planning, the dinner and even the cleaning are enjoyable because we are sharing it with our friends and neighbors. And there is always the mysterious stranger who walks into town from the hills or came in on a fragile boat who quietly takes over the kitchen or knows how to prepare a special delicacy.

If you would like to help, please call Ilka Hartmann (-0419).

FROM THE COVER

It's the 46th anniversary of the Indian Occupation of Alcatraz ...

which lasted for 19 months (1969 to 1971.)

Research has shown that it influenced Nixon's decision in 1970 to change destructive legislation for Native Americans from Termination to Self-Determination and to return vast amounts of land.

To my delight (I did not know about it for two years), this mural at San Francisco State University depicts one of my photographs of two Occupiers giving the Red Power symbol and stating "We will not give up."

Peter Orner, author and Bolinas resident to read at the Bolinas Library, Saturday, Nov. 22nd at 5pm

Peter Orner moved to Bolinas several years ago with his family. He is the author of numerous books of both fiction and non-fiction and currently teaches at San Francisco State.

Through the years, Orner has received multiple awards for his writing. Esther Stories (Houghton Mifflin/Mariner, 2001) was awarded the Rome Prize from the American Academy of Arts and Letters, the Goldberg Prize for Jewish Fiction, and was a Finalist for the Pen Hemingway Award and the New York Public Library's Young Lions Award. Esther Stories was a 2001 New York Times Notable Book. Of the book, Margot Livesey wrote in the New York Times Book Review, "Orner doesn't simply bring his characters to life, he gives them souls."

The Second Coming of Mavala Shikongo (Little, Brown, 2006) is set in Namibia where Orner lived and worked in the early 1990's. The novel was a Finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize, a San Francisco Chronicle Best-Seller, and winner of the Bard Fiction Prize. The Second Coming of Mavala Shikongo has been translated into French, Dutch, Italian, and German. Love and Shame and Love (Little, Brown, 2011) was called epic by Daniel Handler, "...epic like Gilgamesh, epic like a guitar solo."

"Last Car Over the Sagamore Bridge" is his latest book of short stories published in 2013. It was selected as a New York Times editor's choice book. The book is made up of 52 stories, many of them about small moments in the lives of ordinary people. After reading these stories, one realizes that nothing is really ordinary after all. Lauren Groff writing in the New York Times says, "In each of his books, Orner's crystalline sentences and his ability to pay close and sustained attention to small moments transform the ordinary elements of each story into an even more astonishing whole."

Peter Orner will be reading from this latest book along with a visiting Scotland-based writer and translator, Donal McLaughlin. McLaughlin's latest book is "Beheading the Virgin Mary, and Other Stories. In addition they will be discussing the art of fiction and translation.

Board of Directors Meeting, 10/21/14, 5-7 BCC

Directors and Staff Present: Chris Besenty, Stacy Besenty-Secretary, Ayn Plant, Jeff Manson, Randi Arnold-Director, Susan Tacherra- Treasurer, Jan Broek, Lia Kourula-Manager, Steve Wrenn, Sooze Mills, Susie Stewart, Vanessa & Otis Manson.

Guest: Max Brimhal

President's Report: El Presidente was absent.

Treasurer's Report: All is ahead of budget and looking stronger than anticipated.

Manager's Report: The Halloween Party is coming and StuArt is going to make the sign to put down by the farm stand. Jeff is going to handle the lights and the fog machine during the party. The Pre-school is having a fundraising spaghetti dinner before the dance and has arranged a trade of decoration set-up and take down in exchange for the hall rental during their dinner. Cyrus Harmon will be making paella for the BCC. Wifi needs to be set-up for use during events only. A purchase of an iPod has been approved to build a music library to make use of during events. High Tide Collective will open the Halloween Dance followed by New Monsoon. Amanda from KWMR will be the Master of Ceremonies and will be judging a costume contest. We are currently looking for volunteers to man the door, bar and security. Food Festival follow-up; the kid's zone was amazing! Omar did a fantastic job and the kids had a blast with all of the different activities that had been planned throughout the day. There needs to be more signage that the event is happening. This year we were unable to have the sign hung above the road in front of the hardware store because of the lack of a boom truck. Parking and street personnel are difficult spots to fill with volunteers and for future events off duty security should be hired. It is suggested that a permanent Event Manager is hired for 10-15 hours a week. This person would be trained to handle Events and assist during Lia's absence. Lia and Randi have found an individual. A motion is made by Stacy and second by Ayn, then passed that this person be hired on a probationary period. A review of the Personnel Committee will meet after 60 days to review position. Day of the Dead will follow Halloween and Mirta is looking for help through volunteers to watch over the event for periods of time on Saturday and Sunday. In case not enough volunteers are found battery operated tea lights will be used in place of real candles. A suggestion is made that board meetings are moved to Tuesday nights in hopes that more members will be able to attend. It is put up for vote and all agree that that the third Tuesday of the month in the library at 5:00 is a more viable time to have our meetings. Thanksgiving Dinner will be hosted by Ilka again this year, and all are looking forward to the festivities.

Director's Report: New table cloths have been ordered for BCC events only. New hall chairs have been and we are looking for donors who would like to purchase under their name or in honor of another and additional funding.

Meeting adjourns at 6:30pm

MEMORIAL BENCH FUNDRAISING REACHES GOAL!

Thanks to our generous community, the Briones Lions Club has been able to raise the funds needed for the John Nassrah Memorial Bench in the new Downtown Park.

The date for installation has now moved to January 2015 and we hope to have a dedication ceremony then as well. Details will follow in the new year.

A huge THANK YOU! to all who contributed. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Gather. Explore. Play!
Bolinas Stinson Youth Group

Beautiful Fall afternoon in Stinson. Too cold for soft serve? Oh no, everyone exclaimed. We were joined by David a photographer from The Pt. Reyes Light. He participated in our starting circle, where we all shared the best and worst parts of our weekend. Our pictures were being taken to promote our Gratitude Dinner coming up this Friday evening at the Bolinas Community Center. Ely, Rose, Maittrella, July and Ruby practiced their Lindy Hop on the sidewalk. Simon and Oscar playing tag on the basketball court. We dashed out to the beach to catch sunset before heading to tutoring, rolling in the dunes, taking pictures, and remarking on the early dusk. Mikaella, Heidi and Treshon joined us at the library. Interviews were taken and slide show material compiled so we can have a nice visual presentation of what we do on Monday afternoons to share with our families and supporters on Friday. Back at the Den with delicious Parkside Pizza, we planned our playlist for the dance that we will have with Tomales Bay Youth Group following dinner. We made sure our talking stick had full representation, some had yet to emboss their name in the wood. Oscar and Mikaella will be leading our circle on Friday. Everyone is excited to dress up, help set up, and host a lovely evening for our community. Many cheers when the addition of the chocolate fountain was announced. Everyone is welcome Lasagna dinner at 6pm Friday November 21st, BCC! $10 a plate, suggested donation. We are looking to raise funds to continue to allow Youth Group to be free to all that attend.

To Learn From Animal Being;
by John O'Donohue from his book "To Bless the Space Between Us"

Nearer to the earth's heart,
Deeper within its silence:
Animals know this world
In a way we never will.

May we enter
Into lightness of spirit,
And slip frequently into
The feel of the wild.

We who are ever
Distanced and distracted
By the parade of bright
Windows thought opens:
Their seamless presence
Is not fractured thus.

Let the clear silence
Of our animal being
Cleanse our hearts
Of corrosive words.

Stranded between time
Gone and time emerging,
We manage seldom
To be where we are:
Whereas they are always Looking out from
The here and now.

May we learn to walk
Upon the earth
With all their confidence
And clear-eyed stillness
So that our minds
Might be baptized
In the name of the wind
And the light and the rain.

May we learn to return
And rest in the beauty
Of animal being,
Learn to lean low,
Leave our locked minds,
And with freed senses
Feel the earth
Breathing with us.

Good Food, Beautiful Voices,
What a Treat, This Sunday!

Hello All,,
Just a quick note to let you know i'll be cooking up a big tasty dinner down at the BCC on Sunday to celebrate the Common Voice Choir's performance as well as the impressive current abundance of local Bolinas produce. There will be tamarind and garam masala beans from gospel flat, a tasty local winter squash roast with fresh fennugreek from star route farm, basmati pilaf, raita, chutney with apples from the Mesa, popadam and more!

A generous plate of this Indian-influenced organic vegetarian Hippie-fare will cost $7 with a small kids portion for $3. Please bring your own plate.

Food will be available to go but I really recommend enjoying your meal at the Community Center and staying to hear some wonderful music from over 70 (!) West Marin voices led by the inimitable and talented Tim Weed.

That's this Sunday, 11/23 Dinner 5:30, Concert at 7. Come one come all!

Announcing a wonderful Annual Holiday Event:

BOLINAS STINSON BEACH OPEN STUDIOS
THANKSGIVING WEEKEND 2014

Friday, Saturday & Sunday, November 28 & 29, and 30, from 11 to 5

Again this year a group of talented and diverse artists and craftspeople will be opening their studios to visitors this holiday weekend.

Twenty-two artists working in a variety of media including Painting, Watercolor, Sculpture, Ceramics, Textiles, Photography and Mixed Media are participating.

A brochure which illustrates each artist is available at the studios and local businesses. Signs will guide visitors to individual studios.

NEW THIS YEAR: Group Exhibition of participating artists, at 11 Wharf Road, Bolinas, an historic inn dating from 1890. Open the preceding weekend, Nov. 22 & 23, 11 - 5, and during the hours of the Open Studios event, Nov. 28, 29 & 30.

For complete information and maps please visit our website:
<http://www.coastalmarinartists.com>

A special opportunity to view art in the studio where it is made, and perhaps pick up a treasure or two; many artists will feature special small items for the holidays. The perfect holiday outing.

LOST & FOUND

HI. MY NAME IS SADIE MANN AND I AM A FOURTH grader at the Bolinas Stinson School. I recently started biking to get around with my sister. I love riding my bike and I love my bike. I am so sad right now because I left my bike downtown in the plaza for a couple of days only to find that it was gone and someone took it. Hopefully someone put it in a safe place for me. If anyone has any idea where my bike is, please call 858-9505 or 868-9505. My bike is purple, has gears, and has a rack on the back. Thank you, Sadie
