HEMGROWN With Sadja Greenwood, M.D. Fire
Station Meeting Room, 7:30pm

Well, I hope you all aren't feeling too blown away.

What a wild weird wind storm last night. I had been in a windowless, well insulated bunker of a music practice space in PR when it hit, so didn't even notice anything till I started driving home & saw all the limbs and debris all over the road, dark windows & got messages from friends in Bolinas & Oakland, wondering if the End of Nigh. (Why they asked me, I can't say!) No big deal but around 13 curves I did get a branch stuck under my Volvo & had to pull over to free it.

This morning the report is that there are still 2 power lines down; one by Smiley's & another on Terrace, where a whole pole fell over, taking a tree with it. Let's hope the power comes back on before tonight's sold-out opening of Patrice Daley's "TASTE" the play. If you didn't get tickets yet, consider attending Sat or Sun night...

Here's a poetic storm re-cap from Di-Fi Finland at the Peoples Store:

*So Noisy Last nite.
They have Noisy Things! hanging.*

*At store.
No electricity downtown.*

*Tree limb on wire down by the bar.
Off since eleven last night.*

*Downtown covered in tree debris.
Dairy not here, cant' bake bread.*

-Jeff Manson, Friday Ed.

November 12, 2013 Letter to Superintendent Enos, Principal Doss, and the BSUSD School Board

On behalf of the Stinson Beach Montessori Pre-School and its board, I would like to extend thanks to the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District for providing a lease to our school for the last 10 or so years. Since 2004, with the support of the School District, our preschool has provided early education on the Stinson school campus to hundreds of children, most of whom have continued their studies at the Bolinas-Stinson School.

We are aware that the school district is no longer able to extend its lease to our preschool due to many various factors, and understand that the district's first concern is the well-being of its K-8 students.

We also understand the desire and efforts of many individuals in support of early childhood development for our younger children, especially superintendent Larry Enos, as well as other passionate BSUSD School Board and community members. Not only have we been provided with much needed housing, but also health screenings and other opportunities that ensure that all children who pass through our local preschools are given the chance to enter into Kindergarten confident, supported and equally prepared.

Everyone agrees that it is in the District's best interest to fully support its incoming children and families. However, as it stands now, come next fall, our school does not yet have another location. We have been and will continue to be focusing efforts in seeking an alternative location in either Bolinas or Stinson Beach. We have put together a crew to plan actions needed to find a new school site, and would appreciate any support the communities of Stinson Beach and Bolinas have to add to this effort.

The Stinson Beach Preschool will be holding a public meeting to entertain any and all ideas for housing and the future of the Stinson Beach Montessori Preschool in our classroom on the Stinson Campus on Tuesday, November 19th at 6:00 p.m.

If a member from the BSUSD School Board could be present at this meeting, as well as future meetings, we would greatly appreciate the support and perspective. It is well documented that the best scenario for early learning is when the continuum between preschool and kindergarten is seamless. Physical proximity for both teachers and children can help to achieve this educational continuum in numerous ways. Our proximity to the kindergarten classroom and BSUSD school campus has been ideal for the staff, children and their families.

Perhaps in the future, with community, district and government support, early education will have a different look and all children and families will be supported in their education and development regardless of age. This stability and attention to early educational opportunity will result in excellence of the students and district. We will continue to rally for our communities' children and their families by vying for increased support and a more cohesive inclusive system that addresses all the issues pertaining to the actuality of having a Pre-K through 8th grade program.

Our passionate families and alum have already expressed an interest in helping to provide the district with whatever is necessary to accomplish this goal. We are first in line to help with fundraising, navigating red tape, construction planning and execution. We feel that if there is anywhere that real support for early education can happen it is here in the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District. We have the resources, passion and fierce commitment to our youngest children needed to put such a program in place, and believe our communities, including you the Board, our Superintendent and most West Marin constituents, would support such a program. ! The Stinson Beach Preschool believes in our school and our youth.

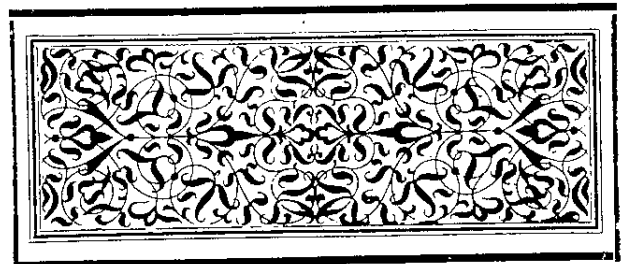

We believe in supporting families with young children through quality education and kindergarten readiness. We believe strongly in community, be it "public" or "private" and hope that we can continue our efforts to blur these lines and realize that we are one in the same. It's about the children.

Thank you once again for everything the BSUSD has done for the Stinson Beach Preschool, especially the efforts of Superintendent Larry Enos and other key individuals, in providing care and support for our communities and our youngest citizens who don't yet have a voice. We look forward to an amiable relationship in the future, and continued efforts in working together to provide the best education possible for all our children.

Sincerely,

 Stinson Beach Preschool*

OUR VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPT. CHECKING OUT THE DOWNED POWERLINES ON TERRACE-

Opening Reception & Holiday Party
Bolinas Museum
Saturday November 23, 3-5 PM
2 PM Artist Talk

Be prepared to be surprised when you come to Bolinas Museum's opening reception for three new exhibitions including the 25th Annual Mini Show. This Mini Show and benefit sale includes exciting work from 100 Bay Area artists, more than 60 are from Coastal Marin. In honor of the Museum's 30th Anniversary and 25 years of the well-loved Mini Show, Jennifer Gately the Museum's Executive Director arranged something special. In addition to the usual works no larger than 6 inches in any direction, artists could submit one work up to 18 inches—acknowledging 6 inches for each decade of the Museum! Gately also invited each former Bolinas Museum Director to join her in inviting one artist to submit a work of 25 inches in honor of 25 years of the Mini Show. This acknowledges each Director since 1987 when Joyce Clements added art to the Museum's history-preservation mission statement. Followed by Directors Linda Samuels, Dolores Richards and Vandy Seeburg. So this year's exhibition is overflowing with variety and remarkable art. There's sure to be something for everyone in this highly anticipated annual benefit!

Opening in the Museum's photography gallery is Elizabeth Opalenik: Mordançage. Elizabeth Opalenik is a Bay Area photographer and instructor with a passion for the French photographic process, mordançage, where silver emulsion is chemically lifted, removed, or rearranged in the shadow areas during the development of high contrast gelatin silver prints. Opalenik is known for figurative work where "draped veils" are accomplished by using drops of water to preserve and rearrange the delicate floating silver skin of each image in her darkroom, making each image unique. Stinson Beach photographer Ginny Felch curated the exhibition. At 2:00 PM before the opening, Opalenik will give an artist talk for the public.

In the Coastal Marin Artists gallery: Inspired By Process: Coastal Marin Printmakers, was curated by Elia Haworth with help from Heather Pratt of Inverness. The exhibition represents some of Coastal Marin's many talented printmakers. Each artist has brought some element of their process to the exhibition. For example Tom Killion's print is accompanied by his hand carved woodblocks. Charles Hobson shows his mono print technique that was used in his book Parisian Encounters. Marie Dern, Joe Blumenthal, Heather Pratt and Nancy Stein, Michael O'Shea, Inez Storer and Maureen Blumenthal present a variety of styles and techniques. After the Opalenik talk there will be an artist talk about the printmaking exhibition.

The Bolinas Museum Annual Mini Show opening is always a great holiday party. Come and meet the artists! It is free and everyone is invited. The artist talks will start at 2:00PM and the reception runs from 3:00 to 5:00 PM.

Memories of:
Dallas: '63

The Village Elliott: 11-21-13

Doctor Feelgood shot up JFK
To invigorate candidate's day,
Buzzed on speed from this quack
Bulked on steroids for back
JFK's pharmacy leads the way

Close contested vote picks JFK
Serves till Dallas morn, his thousandth day,
Did GOP's Nixon,
The loser, think fix in?
Did "Ascendency" Tex LBJ?

From the shadows where gunmen would lay
Lee Harvey Oswald was hear to say,
I'd have had cleaner crop
If I used photo-shop
And I wouldn't be a patsy today!

Did "Fair Ply for Cuba," Clay Shaw,
Find a jarhead who too lately saw?
"I'm the patsy they called,"
Claimed Lee Harvey Oswald,
"The Lone Gunman" he's called by the law.

Live from Dallas the viewers would see
The Lone Gunman shoot live on TV.
Like Hamlet, Jack Ruby
Thought, "Tis better 'to be!"
So he acted and shot the Patsy.

Coverit assassins failed, Fidel scoffed,
Those exploding cigars? Castro coughed.
After all those failed gaffs
Did he get two last laughs
By surviving two Kennedys offed?

On Sunday at 1pm the film "Sitting Bull" by my friends John & Grace Ferry will be shown on KQED, Channel 9.

SMILEY'S SCHOONER SALOON & HOTEL

On November 22, 1963 my friend Rainer and I, both students, were sitting in his small room in West Berlin listening to music by the American Forces Network radio station (AFN) Suddenly a man's voice interrupted the music, "The President has been shot, the President has been shot". I quickly translated for my friend who could not speak English. We sat there waiting for more news. Then it came, "The President has died! I repeat, the President is dead." Stunned, we turned to a German radion station and soon found out that the news was in fact true. West Berlin students announced that immediately a silent march was planned through the city. We went. There were hundreds of people walking with large torches which lit up the night walking in stunned silence through Berlin.

Just a few months earlier, on a sunny afternoon, many of us had sat in the sun on the lawn across from the town hall of the Berlin burrough of Schoeneberg when Mayor Willy Brandt, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and the American President John F. Kennedy had appeared on the balcony. I translated Kennedy's speech for Rainer who with his mother had fled from the Russian Eastern occupied zone of Germany and learned Russian in school as a second language. But I did not need to translate when the American President surprised us with his words, "Ich bin ein Berliner." Many of us were deeply moved. Our generation had to face our country's history just a few years before we were born and the American president respected us and the current West Germany enough to learn to speak a few words in our language.

Later we learned that JFK had practiced pronouncing the sentence with Willy Brandt and Konrad Adenauer beforehand. By the way, it was the correct use of the language.

Board Meeting October 19th, 2013

Présent à répondre: M. Président Chapman; MM. Besenty, Broek, Manson, Wrenn; Mme. Vice-Président Lyman; Mmes. Pfeffer, McAdams, Waring, Plant; Mills, Lewis, Rose; Mme. Directeur du Développement Arnold; Mme. Directeur Général Sabbatini.

The meeting commenced at 10:12 AM. M. Président Chapman led the assembly with a rousing rendition of L'hymne de la BCC. This was followed with the review and approval of the minutes. M. Wrenn moved and Mme. McAdams seconded for approval, which passed à l'unanimité.

Treasurer's Report: The money is "good." Mme. Sabbatini reported the Food Fest was a success, though the membership table brought in a little less than last year. It was believed the absence of the stove may have made the difference. Total gross: $9318.00; after expenses the BCC netted just about $6000.00. Of special note, the pie table earned $538.00. Et fabuleux!

M. Wrenn inquired as to the amount needed to finish the kitchen project. Mme. Sabbatini replied Le BCC only needs about 3 to 4 thousand dollars. Target date for completion, with additional donations: approximately the first of the year. Exceptionnel!

A discussion of the possible impacts of the weather and the gov't shutdown on the overall attendance of the Food Festival followed. There was general agreement that there were probably fewer people overall in West Marin than last year.

Mme. Sabbatini continued with her report: (1) Termites had been discovered yet again—however, there were of the damp variety and confined to le foyer. A discussion ensued as to the possible uses of such insects and whether or not any repairs might open another can of worms with regard to repair costs. There was general agreement to attempt minor fixes first, as there was little concern that the termites would spread beyond the damp areas. (2) With regard to staffing, material acquisitions, and other projects, Le BCC has been receiving exceptional assistance from Phil; two tent canopies had been purchased at substantial discount; and Nick the cabinetmaker has been performing remarkable work on the sound and light cabinet, above and beyond initial spécifique. There was general agreement that additional compensation would be approprié. (3) The vendor applications for the (local) Winter Faire would be made available through the customary channels November 1st and an auxiliary committee would be assembled to examine the food gestalt; the status of the (non-local) World Faire was unknown at the moment. (4) The Halloween open house was on track, as was Le Dia de Los Angelitos and Le Dia de Los Muertos (through the auspices of Le Président, M. Chapman, who welcomed any assistance the board could provide with this annual endeavor.)

Mme. Guzman's absence from this year's Le Dia de Los Angelitos and Le Dia de Los Muertos ceremonies was sadly noted by the board, all of whom warmly expressed much admiration for her exceptional efforts in prior years and a hoped-for return engagement next year. This was followed by wide ranging observations from various board members regarding (1) the poetically timely approaching darkness, its relevance to the cycle of life and death and renewal, and the beating back of such by the repair of the lights out front; (2) an affirmation of the sport of ping-pong and whether or not conflicts could arise with the ingestion of massive amounts of sugar on Hallowe'en by small children during the playing of such (it was agreed the tables could be moved if conflicts arose.) Mme. Arnold also brought to the attention of the Board that the construction of the storage lockers had been delayed, though not fatally, by a surfing mishap resulting in an injured hand. Best wishes and a speedy recovery were expressed for the owner of said hand. Mme. Arnold also noted the welcome donation of palm trees by the exceptional friend of the Le BCC, Magi. Discussion ensued as to what to do with them, given that winter is approaching. It was agreed to offer them for sale if they could not be properly housed and cared for by Le BCC.

The meeting was then turned over to M. Wrenn, who, as Le Emissaire du Père Noël, had marvelous news to share. Santa Claus would be making a return engagement to Bolinas! C'est magnifique! The particulars would be published in the local news organ, to wit: (1) He will arrive Dec 14th, in the company of Carmen the Elf, Frosty the Snowman, several reindeer, and be available from 11 AM to 4:30 PM (with accommodation made for late arrivals if they are accompanied by children) for a meet and greet; (2) photos with Santa will be taken for a nominal fee (said fee subject to the pecuniary status of the sittee); (3) there will be hot chocolate, of course; (4) the Society of Santas will also be at work in the community, offering assistance and good cheer to our neighbors; (5) letters to Santa will also be solicited and answered (with a modicum of assistance from parents) and; (6) food barrels will magically appear shortly after Thanksgiving in the markets, to collect food for re-distribution Christmas Eve, so that no one in our fair burg shall know a bare table on this night of good will amongst neighbors. Much appreciation was expressed with best wishes offered to Santa for his generosity to Bolinas.

The meeting concluded at 11:15 AM.

WILL DURST IN BOOMERAGING: FROM LSD TO OMG

Will Durst's acclaimed tribute to the history, growth, joys, achievements, frustrations, fashions and looming doom of the Baby Boom Generation, has been extended until September 3rd. Ably assisted by his trusty overhead projector, Durst explores the Boomers' revolutions, evolutions and still vibrant role in today's youth-obsessed society, which they invented, for crum's sake. It's a celebration of the maturation of the Boomer Nation and as an extra, added, special treat- the Meaning of Life.

Saturday, November 23, 8 PM. General $16, Seniors $14

SUZANNE CIANI, DANCE PALACE PIANO CONCERT SERIES

Five-time Grammy nominee, Suzanne Ciani will perform her original compositions for solo piano, including her signature song, "The Velocity of Love." Ciani moved to Bolinas to concentrate on her artistic career and establish her own Indy label, Seventh Wave, after years on major labels (Sony, BMG, RCA, and Atlantic). She is best loved for her original music that feature her performances in a broad array of expressions: pure electronic, solo piano, piano with orchestra, and piano with jazz ensemble. No matter the medium, Ciani's music communicates the special intimacy, passion, and sensitivity that have become her trademark and prompted fans to buy more than one million of her albums.

Sunday, November 24, 4 PM / $20 general, $18 seniors, $10 youth
