Fibershed Annual Symposium 11/10/2018 - 10:00am to 5:00pm

This 7th annual wool symposium focuses on "soil-to-skin" themes such as fire ecology, fostering animal integration, fiber systems and functional use of garments. Tickets for the symposium are $20-40. The Symposium will also host a market offering place-based goods and raw materials for textile creation. There will also be demonstrations on sheep shearing, wool grading, heritage sheep, angora rabbits, felting, flax production, natural dyeing, spinning, weaving, mending and primitive skills. Marketplace and demos are free to the public. For more information go to fibershed.com. Location: Main, Church, Outdoor & Kitchen

Contemporary Opera Marin 11/11/2018 - 7:00pm to 9:00pm

Paul Smith directs Two British Community Operas. Britain's tradition of furthering opera literacy by commissioning works for schools and community groups, works that offer an opportunity for all to participate while maintaining high musical and dramatic standards, is on display by Contemporary Opera Marin. Harrison Birtwistle's The Mark of the Goat (1966) is an apt choice for these interesting political times with a large chorus of citizens providing sung, spoken, and instrumental accompaniment. The Little Sweep (1949) by Benjamin Britten is perhaps the greatest of school operas by the greatest of British composers of the 20th century. Scored for school-age soloists as well as adults, plus an active chorus, the innocence of childhood must confront the demands of an adult world filled with fantasy and intrigue. Go to the College of Marin website for more information.

Community Meeting on Early Childcare and Education 11/14/2018 - 4:30pm

Join us for a public hearing on the state of childcare, early education, and after school programs in Marin and our County Subsidized Child Care Pilot Plan. Get updates about the state of our county in this field and hear from our elected officials on related policies. Light dinner and childcare provided. For more information and to RSVP: www.marinchildcare.org or (415) 499-5827

Point Reyes Community Lunch EVERY THURSDAY - 12:00pm BY WEST MARIN SENIOR SERVICES

Dear Editor,
KWMR would like to thank everyone who helped us reach our Fall Pledge Drive goal of $50,000. Pledge drives happen twice a year, in spring and fall, and constitute 25% of KWMR's operating budget. We thank the phone volunteers, the food donors, those who contributed challenge grant funding, the KWMR Board, the staff, the volunteer programmers, and each of you who contributed any amount towards the goal. The smallest donation was 35 cents, every penny counts.

MUSIC AND PUPPETS TONIGHT!
FRIDAY AT 7pm at The Farmstand

West of Roan creates performances using the storytelling methods of song and puppetry. They draw inspiration from the old myths and legends to explore relationship to the wild self, and the things that come up along the way: fear, darkness, demons, love, isolation, joy and transformation. They use light and shadow to set the scene. Their puppets walk, swim, and fly within and between the topside world and the one below-where creatures and intricacies of the subconscious live. Close two part harmonies explore how singing uplifts and unites their collaboration and friendship, revealing that sounds and chordal structures can bring us closer to the complex emotions in the stories told.

Great Minds Panel Discussion
Art & Astronomy
Sunday, November 11 4-6 PM
at Bolinas Community Center
 Suggested donation $10

The discussion, titled The Lights in the Sky are Stars: Looking, Seeing and Knowing in Art, Astrophysics and Photography, will stimulate your curiosity, reignite your interest in the grandeur of the night sky and inspire your own creative expression.

The panelists, truly great minds, are all participants in the current astronomy-themed exhibitions at Bolinas Museum, curated by Jennifer Gately, who brought together contemporary art and historic and cutting edge science. Each panelist will give a brief introduction about their work before the discussion begins. Director of Lick Observatory Historical Collection, Tony Misch is a retired astronomer who also holds an MFA degree. Don Jolley is legendary as the visionary science teacher of the Bolinas-Stinson School eighth grade, whose immense curiosity and knowledge is contagious for all ages. Michael Light, of San Francisco and Bolinas, is nationally renowned for his aerial photography. He also worked with NASA to bring us previously unseen images from the first trips to the moon. Linda Connor, Marin County photographer who has influenced international and Bay Area photography for forty years, worked with historic negatives from the Lick Observatory. The talk will be moderated by John Weber, the founding director of UC Santa Cruz Institute of Arts and Sciences, Art Division, following his eleven years at San Francisco Museum of Modern Art where he led innovative education programs. This promises to be an exciting and stimulating conversation!

Special announcement: Tony Misch and Michael Light will be at Bolinas Museum on Sunday from 2 to 3 PM to answer questions about the exhibition.

Taurids Meteor Shower The Taurids are a minor shower and are believed to be composed of two shower streams. The southern Taurids stream can be seen as early as mid to late September and are active throughout November and can produce bright meteors and fireballs. The northern Taurids can be seen from October 12th to December 2nd, with this year's peak on Nov 5th. The Taurids radiant point is their namesake constellation Taurus, the Bull. Orion's familiar three star belt is your guide to locate Taurus. Follow the belt upward and you find Taurus' brightest star Aldebaran in the mist of the "V" shaped Hyades star cluster.
