& YOU! (EVERYONE IS A REPORTER)

Dear West Marin Community:

Please mark your calendars – a very important meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 6, 2015 at 7:00 pm. at the

Bolinas Firehouse with West Marin citizens and representatives of the Marin/Sonoma Mosquito and Vector Control District

The West Marin Mosquito Council (WMCC) has been working successfully with the Marin/Sonoma Mosquito and Vector Control District (MSMVCD)) since 2005 to implement a very low toxic protocol agreement for the control of mosquitoes in West Marin. We did this because we have so many organic farms, water-ways, some endangered species and we are all aware of the environmental problems with pesticides – on our health and the planet’s health. The WMCC consists of representatives from virtually all the government agencies in West Marin as well as representatives from Point Reyes Station and Nicasio.

Our very low toxic protocol agreement with the MSMVCD will expire at the end of March 2015 and there are some on the MSMVCD Board and staff who wish to not have a separate agreement with West Marin and be able to use the variety of pesticides that they use in ‘East’ Marin and Sonoma. The WMCC is opposed to this and we have asked the Bolinas Community Public Utility District (BCPUD) to host a special meeting with MSMVCD representatives to discuss this most important matter and formally request that we continue our current agreement - which is working very well. The meeting will be held at the Bolinas Firehouse Public Meeting Room, 100 Mesa Road in Bolinas, on January 6, 2015 beginning at 7 pm.

It is vitally important that we have an excellent turnout at this meeting. PLEASE mark your calendars now.

Sincerely yours, Margaret Graham, WMCC Co-Chair & Elizabeth (Liza) A. Goldblatt, WMCC Co-Chair

OUR DEAR SERITA BASILIO LEWIS had heart surgery and 2 subsequent hospitalizations and is currently unable to work. Please donate to this fund for her if you can. Emma Lee has been coordinating her care and set this up for her:

Winter Celebration Potluck

We will be having a Party on Thursday December 25, Christmas Day. It will be lunch and beyond, depending on you, and us.

We have cans at both of our wonderful Food stores for any financial support you can offer. This is a volunteer effort and any cash will go toward food for the event. I am hoping to open with snacks at 12 noon, followed with major food by 1:00 ish. Depending also on us all. We are planning an informal set up, and everyone is invited to this relaxed and fun event. I will be in and around the kitchen after 1:00 on Wednesday, December 24 (the day before) and will need you to help set up tables- in an informal array - like last year. You can also drop off food then. Very welcome will be flowers with folks to arrange them on the tables.

Feel free to bring your own wine or beer and we will provide coffee, tea, and water. I am hoping for music and we may have a piano player and beyond. Be sure to bring your voice, and/or instruments. And, don't forget to bring a dish to share since we are intending to feed everyone. If you find yourself with nothing to bring, remember a smile launched a thousand ships- or something like that. Most important is this ... Do not stay home and feel depressed or all alone. Come down, give a helping hand, and some laughter. Being with our great Community is our present.

Especially needed will be folks to bring wood and do the fireplace, table set up, kitchen clean up, etc. We will again try to set up a self-bussing situation so cleanup will be less stressful and fun. If you need a ride down (and it could be pouring) please give me a call and we'll send someone to get you. I appreciate all you can do to help facilitate this wonderful event.

KNOW YOUR BO.

In 1904, Bolinas voted to outlaw outhouses and build a sewer system to be paid for by sale of bonds. The plan was simple, merely channel the sewage from the houses into a central outflow pipe with a flap valve, thence into the lagoon, where the ebb tide would sweep it out to sea. It soon became apparent, as raw sewage does, that the tides did not flush the waste out to sea. The lagoon turned into a sludge basin. In the late 1960's an influx of people of a certain age and lifestyle taxed both bedroom accommodations and sewer facilities. In 1970, a hepatitis outbreak prompted the County to order a quarantine of the lagoon and gave the town until July, 1971, to design a treatment plant to accommodate 28,000 people. The town, led primarily by its new residents, rejected the plan, elected their own to the utility board and declared a moratorium on new homes. That election and the course that it set for the town, was chronicled by Orville Schelle in his book: The Town that Fought to Save Itself.

THE POINT REYES PENINSULA CHRISTMAS BIRD COUNT DINNER

The Point Reyes Peninsula Christmas Bird Count is an annual tradition since 1970. We spend the day conducting a census of the of all the birds we can find, ordinarily 190 to 200 plus species that winter in the Point Reyes area. This is generally one of the top ten counts in the USA. The compilation dinner is held at the Dance Palace and participants tally the species seen and generally enjoy the birding highlight of the season. Interested people for either the Count or the dinner should go to www.forestdata.com/cbc/ for further information and to sign up for both the Count and the dinner.

Dinner reservations required. Saturday, December 20. The dinner starts around 5:00 PM. Last year the price was $16. We hope to stay at that level. Go to www.forestdata.com/cbc/ for further information and to sign up.

The Spirit of The Times:

What do Cesar Chavez, Huey Newton, Dennis Banks, Sacheen Littlefeather, Rigoberta Menchú and lawyers William Kunstler, Charles Garry/Fay Stender and Mayor George Moscone have in common? They are all currently on exhibit at 11 Wharf Road (the former Blue Heron). These photos by Ilka Hartmann have come from the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts and galleries in Miami and North Carolina. There are also some equally famous to us Bolinas people: Frank Cerda, Elaine and an anonymous graffiti lady, which looks strikingly real with her beach grass hairdo.

The last days of the exhibit will be Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Noon till dusk, or call Ilka at -0419 to see it. A few copies of "The Town that Fought to Save Itself" and the children's book "Pearson, a harbor Seal Pup" By local writer Susan Meyers and photos by me will be available, too.

-Ilka Hartmann.

PONDEROSA PINE's BARDO PARTY

Before he died, Ponderosa asked Bolinas to have a Bardo Party for him. The 49 days according to Tibetan Buddhist tradition will be completed on Tuesday, December 30. We are planning it at the Community Center at 4:30pm. It's a potluck. Please bring drinks, musical instruments, pictures, costumes and memories.

Pine's sisters and nice and some of his children will be here. Bring your stories about Pine. This may be the only opportunity for them to hear of Pin'e life with us, of which they knew little, and how much we appreciated him.

If you can think of anyone outside of Bolinas who does not know of the event, please invite them.

To help, or if you have any questions, call Penny at -0146 or Ilka at -0149

Molly Maguire and Bill Quist's 6th annual Sing-In of George Friedrich Handel's Messiah will be held on Tuesday Night at 7 p.m. on December 23rd at St. Magdalena Church on Horseshoe Hill Rd., Bolinas.

This year Bill will be using the electronic keyboard to produce an array of sounds to produce an intimate version of the Messiah. With these two artists' tradition, each section of the choir will sing their own solos. 'Heard through the grapevine that Molly Maguire might grace us with her voice as well as conducting. See you there to sing or listen around the "organ."

Much Thanks About Crab!

Once again we pulled off a successful fundraiser, Yay! We had such a great time hosting the recent Crab Feed event and it seemed as if everyone in attendance did too. The Bolinas Community Center was decorated beautifully, the crabs were plentiful (HUGE thanks to Greg Marcotte, who procured our crabs - wouldn't be a crab feed without crab), the salads and bread were abundant, the music was spot on perfect, and the vibe was all around festive and fun! Thanks to all who made it happen and especially to the community who never fails to support our kids and our school.

We would especially like to thank the following businesses and individuals for their contributions to our event:

- Meristem
- The Parkside Café
- The Bolinas People's Store
- The Stinson Beach Market
- Midnight on the Water
- June and Alex Kleider
- Rozlyn Terry Marnell
- Star Route Farms
- Gospel Flat Farms
- Johanna Boero
- Don Jolley
- Lynn MacLaird

Thanks again for coming out and supporting the 8th grade field trip to Ashland, Oregon. We are very happy to report that we raised enough funds to cover the bulk of our trip and we look forward to attending the Shakespeare Festival in June, 2015. Thank you for helping to make it happen.

Sincerely,

Taking back our power

By Mary Beth Brangan

Pt. Reyes Light 12/11/2014

Almost exactly four years ago, June McCrory and Katharina Sandizell-Smith, two young West Marin mothers, made national news by blocking the road to Inverness to smart meter installers and becoming among the first in the country to be arrested over the issue. Their arrests shocked many in the industry into realizing that all was not well with their plans.

After an unprecedented multi-year delay, a final decision on opting out of smart meters will be made by the California Public Utilities Commission next Thursday, Dec. 18.

Those of us in West Marin and Fairfax became leaders in the fight against the shift to smart meters. We joined leaders in Sebastopol, Scotts Valley and beyond in voicing health, safety, security and privacy concerns. Fairfax City Council's resolution asserting the right of communities to opt out helped kick off what eventually became 57 cities, counties and one tribe to officially object. Many called for moratoriums on installation; over a dozen made installation illegal.

People began to speak out to the bi-weekly C.P.U.C. business meetings in San Francisco, and PG&E and the commission's president, Michael Peevey, were getting nervous. People were relating heart-wrenching stories of being physically devastated by the effects of the meter's incessant pulsing microwaves. Many close to banks of multiple meters in apartment buildings or condominiums were especially injured.

After sitting through many hundreds of such testimonies, Mr. Peevey declared that an opt-out would be offered, and established an official proceeding to work out the details.

After producing dozens of videos, writing articles, organizing events, chasing installer trucks out of Bolinas and blocking trucks in Stinson Beach, my husband, Jim, and I became legal intervenors on behalf of the public, arguing for free, community-wide opt-out. After all, we never opted in; why should we be forced to pay to not have something? And doesn't being forced to pay to not be harmed constitute extortion?

With colleagues in Sebastopol and Santa Cruz, we gathered information damning the smart meter technology and set a tone that has reverberated throughout the world. After repeated investigations, our fears about the techno plan were validated again and again. The World Health Organization's International Agency for Cancer Research concluded that microwaves in the frequencies used by wireless devices, including smart meters, are a class 2B probable carcinogen, as is asbestos, arsenic and benzene.

The American Academy of Environmental Medicine issued a letter to the C.P.U.C. calling for an immediate moratorium on installation of the meters, citing peer-reviewed studies showing biological effects from microwave frequencies.

Security experts warn of dramatically increased vulnerability to the electrical grid by cyber attacks because of wireless smart meters. James Woolsey, the former head of the C.I.A., has said that smart meter technologies make the grid stupid. Thousands of fires have been reported and at least two deaths caused by the meters; these have been settled out of court with gag orders. Canadian Saskatchewan utility C.E.O. Robert Watson resigned because of having to recall all meters due to a rash of fires. And now utilities are profiting from selling individual ratepayers' private data gathered by meters.

Since the meters continuously bounce thousands of powerful microwave emissions between neighboring meters, an individual opt-out doesn't remove the harmful emissions. Multiple banks of meters produce really lethal amounts of radiation. Therefore, community opt-out is the only solution. Unfortunately, at the Dec. 4 meeting, utility commissioners decided against allowing communities to opt out and to require those refusing a smart meter to pay for the privilege of not having one. Mr. Peevey actually ridiculed communities that voted for community opt-out as "undemocratic." The final vote will take place at the Dec. 18 meeting in San Francisco, starting at 8:30 a.m. at Van Ness and McAllister, in San Francisco. We will carpool from West Marin.

Though it will still be possible to opt out, you will have to pay a $75 fee upfront and then an $10 extra per month; low-income CARE ratepayers pay $10 upfront and $5 per month, pricing it out of range for many poor people.

We encourage everyone outraged at this injustice and willful ignoring of those pleading on behalf of their health, safety, security and privacy to be at the meeting to demand community opt-out and no fees. We may have lost this round, but this patently illegal affront to people's rights to health and safety and to the right of elected officials to protect their constituents will be challenged in court.

Seeking Tenders for the Spirit House

Seven people are needed for 2015.
 The Spirit House is cleaned weekly.
 It is about an hour task and if we get 7 people to commit to helping,
 each person will only have to do it every 2 months. It is fun and a big service to the community.
 Call me if you would like to be part of this great team. June McAdams
