New Season's Reasons

The Village Elliott: 2/15

The start of each season,
Your team has new reason
To think maybe this might be their year,
Though every team's fans,
Also making their plans
To partake of team's World Series Cheer!

Let the fire burn out
In your stove, we're about
To join your team for Spring Training fun;
Though snow is not melting
Back home, we're sweltering
Underneath a near-tropical sun.

We'll see who's been signed to
Join your team, and now who
Still looks fit in their old uniform,
We will evaluate
Those who came to camp late,
See who already blew out his arm;

For I think it behooves
Fans to study the moves
By their teams made in off-season deals,
Like your team who ain't won
Major League Gonfalon
In years despite your life-long appeals.

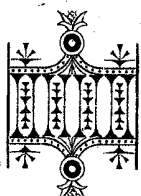

But it's a new season,
And you have your reason
To think certainly "This Is Next Year!"
So. Despite other fans

Also making their plans,
This is your year for World Series Cheer!

Last Weekend!

Supporting a nuclear energy free California.

The movement to shut down California's last nuke standing, PG&E's Diablo Canyon reactors near San Luis Obispo is heating up.

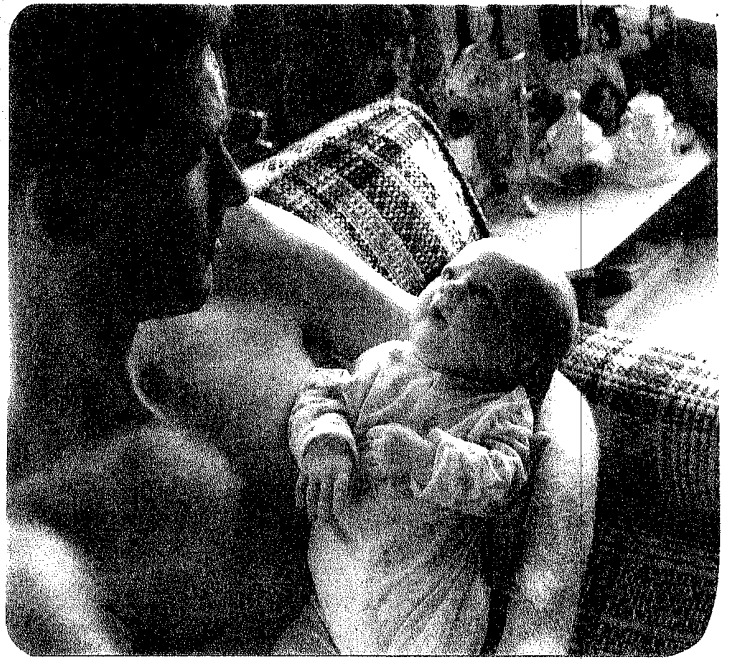

The aging nuke, producing dirty energy the state doesn't need is located like Fukushima in a tsunami zone over 13 earthquake faults and is out of compliance with fire and seismic safety regulations.

A portion of the proceeds from this sale will be donated to the completion of the forth-coming documentary SHUTDOWN by Bolinas filmmakers Mary Beth Brangan and Jim Heddle of EON - the Ecological Options Network.

Mary Beth & Jim

March 18, 1980, an Air Force Chaplain came to my home to tell me that my 4½ month old granddaughter, Laurie Beth, had died.. Laurie Beth had had her "shots" the day before..

I lived in Izmir, Turkey married to an Air Force man.. I had flown, "space available" in Air Force Cargo planes to North Carolina to be with my son for the birth of his 2nd child.. How blessed I am to have held this wee one. How blessed..

Yes, my children had had their "shots".. I did as well going to a land afar.. AND there are humans who are indeed sensitive to vaccinations..

The Freebox Folly Fashion Show was a success! Thank you to everyone that came out and supported the show. The Community Center relies on shows like these and the generosity of the Community. We hope you had a wonderful evening!

I am humbled by the sheer talent that abounds in Bolinas. The performers and models were entertaining and beautiful!

So many came forward and donated their precious time and efforts to meet and plan this event. It was such an organic process and I would love to thank StuArt for really taking the reins with Lia and I, and Zachery Fuller for being there from step one, he was a great MC! Don Smith did such an awesome job with the lights and sound. Schehera for your wonderful ideas and art pieces, not only for decorating the walls but the models too. Amelia's input and beautiful fashion creations, and for opening up the show with your jungle cat. Barbara was essential for organizing the models and auction items. Ashley Brock came up with our wonderful theme and donated really great vintage clothes and did a cute performance with her creations with Charlie, also great to see the famous overalls on Ashley and Lyla. Maria Garrigues not only donated items but worked endlessly in the Bo-tique pricing items and making it look beautiful with Schehara. Elnora was my go to gal, and I would have been lost without June McAdams and Lizzy Setten to run the back. Thanks to Jenai and Hawk for donating some beautiful items for the models to wear.

I really think the performers added so much to the show and I've heard that an audience member almost bust her gut laughing. A BIG Thank you to Martine, Jerry BoJest our Phantom of the freebox, Amber Hines with the missing sock, Cadance on guitar and ukulele, Susan Tacherra and all the adorable children that performed with her. Michael Pinkham and daughters Rain and Beija Flor, Miksu and Xanthe with their donkey and carrots song, Jan Broek singing Folly in Love, and the lovely Beth Carusillo for performing the final scene Wig in a Box.

What would a fashion show be without the models? We really were blown away by the beauty and talent of our models, Sagola, Bronwen, Selena, Taji, Chelsea, Maya, Victoria, Serita. Our young models Fiona, Isabella, and Emily. Ariana and her adorable chip off the old block Isis. Sensitive Sean and Ashley Huck wearing silk bombers. Steve Heilig and Charlie modeling "StuArts Piss Elegant" wear.

Juliet and Pawel put together a wonderful meal of chili, cole slaw and corn bread served from the Murch boat. Ashley Huck and Even Khan ran our bar the whole evening.

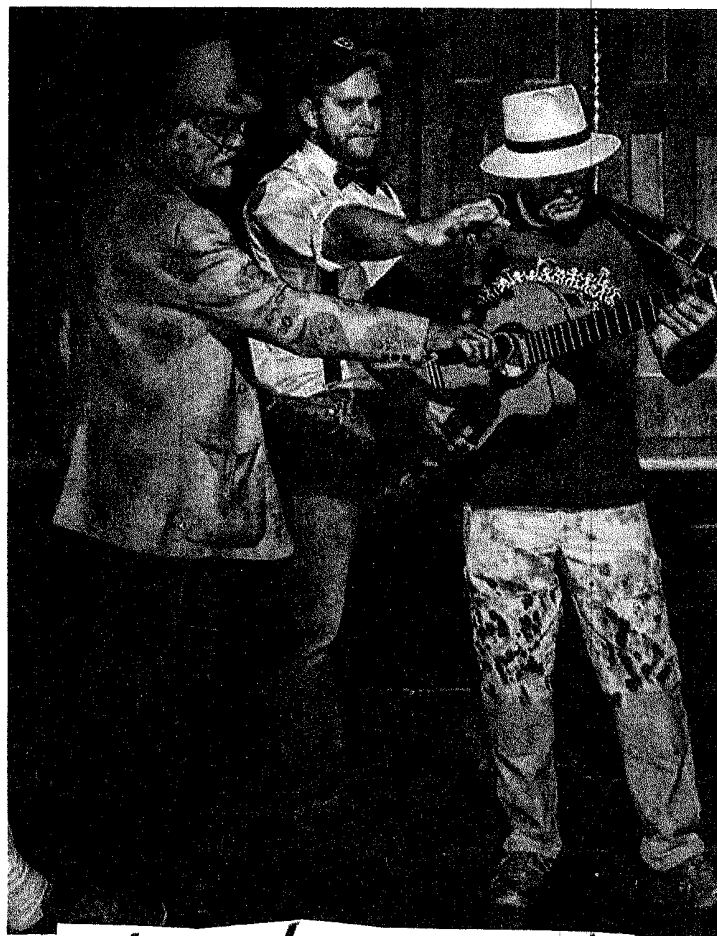

Thank you to Melinda Stone and crew for the knot rugs and the fun evenings creating them. I think if there is interest she would like to continue the Wednesday evening creative get together.

Our whole show was professionally recorded by Peter Turner and Marc Sanchez- Corea. Also documented by a crew from The University of San Francisco.

We had so much fun planning and executing the show this year and already plans are in the works for next year. We can't wait to see what our beloved Bolinas artists and performers will create for 2016!

Training

Training for Volunteers began in the first week of January. This year, Chief Brown formed a training group consisting of four members: FF Willie Krakauer, FF George Krakauer, FF Jake Tacherra and Asst. Chief Marcotte. The group will organize six months of trainings at once with a comprehensive plan that includes all aspects of fire and medical training best suited to the District's calls. Trainings will now occur on one Saturday morning every other month in addition to Thursday evenings.

Chief Brown provided a re-CERT medical training on the morning of Saturday January 17th for a Muir Beach class.

Attendees included members of the Stinson and Muir Beach Disaster Councils.

Volunteers

Chief Brown reported that Capt. Peter Smith is on temporary leave from the department due to a medical issue.

Apparatus

E283 was scheduled for its annual safety inspection the week of January 26th, but the auto shop was too busy to service the engine. Chief Brown will attempt to deliver the engine in the coming weeks.

Disaster Council

Chief Brown reported that she and Beth Carusillo met on January 19th to discuss goals for the Disaster Council in 2015. Disaster agreements with the Bolinas Market, the Bolinas Bay Lumber and the Bolinas People's Store regarding regulating supplies in the case of a disaster was one important goal discussed. Others included issuing radios and training to Neighborhood Liaisons, and planning two drills. Beth and Chief Brown will be meeting with Richard Dillman next week to discuss radios. Dir. Shaw asked how she could be better informed by the Disaster Council. Chief Brown was surprised that she missed the postings in the Hearsay, Post Office and flyers around town as well as a mailing that went to all members of the various teams. She suggested that Dir. Shaw contact her Area Coordinator or Neighborhood Liaison to get involved and informed. Dir. Gade suggested that the Area Coordinators host gatherings in each neighborhood that they are responsible for. Pres. Kimball commented that there are twelve Area Coordinator positions, of which eleven are currently filled in Bolinas. He emphasized that each Coordinator is a volunteer and that the Council operates on a very low budget. He stressed the importance of not overloading their duties and respecting their volunteer time. Vice Pres. Bass remarked that the Get Ready training that she recently attended at the station was very helpful for personal preparedness for potential disasters. Pres. Kimball reiterated that the town's readiness ultimately equals the sum of each individual resident's readiness. Dir. Shaw thanked everyone and will follow up with her Neighborhood Liaison. She also requested information about the Mental Health Team as she is a member.

Building and Grounds

Chief Brown reported that one of the heating and ventilation units located on the mezzanine level has failed. It was discovered when water was found leaking through the laundry room ceiling. Capt. Smith began the repair and discovered an area on the unit that had experienced a small fire. Chief Brown called an HVAC technician and requested an inspection. The technician found some damage to the unit that caused the primary and secondary heating units to separate which caused fire to re-route out of the side of the unit. The tech stated that he is seeing this failure in these units more and more.

It is due to the unit needing to have additional support to prevent it from sagging. He stated that repairing the unit would cost as much as replacing it. Chief Brown received an estimate of $6,310 to replace the unit which includes labor and a new thermostat. The other two units in the building were inspected and no damage was found, although Capt. Smith plans to add the additional support to each one in order to avoid a similar failure. Action was taken later in the meeting under General Business.

General Operations/Administration

The annual Public Records Request from the Bay Area News Group was received asking the District for compensation information. Sec. Brown will send the Board the report she and Chief Brown prepared and submitted to BANG. Dir. Chiera recently created a Public Records Access Guideline Policy for the District and reviewed the general rules and Fee Schedule for duplication of public records. Any public entity is subject to PRA's and there is a two week limit to requests. Costs to duplicate are $.25 cents per page, and $1.70 per minute of production time to extract and program data for reports.

Chief Brown reported that she received a call from Crown/Verizon announcing that they planned to install a microwave dish at the station the very next day. She immediately researched all previous communications and discovered that indeed a microwave dish installation was approved by the District in 2012 after a lengthy and public process. She called the County of Marin to check that all of the permitting was in order. Additional EMFs from the dish are negligible at ground level (as presented by Don Smith in 2012), as the dish is designed to communicate directly with another dish using a narrow and focused path causing very little emissions to reach ground level.

Surfers' Overlook Repair/Terrace Avenue

Chief Brown reported the Terrace Avenue Working Group has been renamed: the Save Surfer's Overlook Committee. The Committee consists of Chief Brown, Asst. Chief Camiccia, Pres. Kimball, GM Blackman of BCPUD, Ruddy Ferris, Remick Hart, Ken Masterton and other interested residents. GM Blackman is researching the costs of creating a 501c3 for the project in order to receive donations. The Board discussed other options including using another 501c3 entity and paying them a percentage of all donations in exchange for their fiscal sponsorship. Dir. Shaw cautioned against setting up a new and separate 501c3 entity as it is expensive, legally complicated and time consuming. Another community presentation is being planned in the near future to give the community another chance to overview the situation. Pres. Kimball reiterated that there is no intent for the Fire District to have any fiscal responsibility for the potential repair.

(Crown Castle) Leases with a term of purchase agreement of 30 years and a purchase price of $1,343,000. Pres. Kimball created a spreadsheet that sums up the rent expected for the next 30 years with the annual 6% increase of interest added. He included the potential costs of replacing engines in 2017 and 2021. When compared with the proposal, the revenue from the leases with interest far surpasses the offered purchase price of the leases. Dir. Gade asked if the outcome would differ if the $1.3 million received from WCP was invested at market rate. Pres. Kimball informed her that District monies are most appropriately invested in County accounts even though they only receive approximately 1% interest because the District's funds are not large enough to be invested in a more diversified but riskier portfolio. Chief Brown added that there have been many offers to purchase the leases which the District has turned down. She remembered the District's commitment to the community to limit EMFs as much as possible now and in the future. If the leases were sold, the District would most likely lose control of the number of carriers on each tower, and emissions would most likely increase. She thanked Pres. Kimball for his clear report. MSC, Shaw/Chiera (unan) to reject the WCP, LLC proposal to purchase the Telecommunications Leases as it is not in the best financial interest of the District. Chief Brown will contact WCP, LLC and inform them of the Board's decision.

Action Item #2: Approve purchase of new ventilation and heating unit at the BFPD station.

Chief Brown reiterated that the action item is time sensitive and therefore considered an emergency item which can be added to the agenda at the meeting without prior announcement. The timely replacement of the failed unit is very important, it is the unit that controls the temperature in the living space of the building. MSC, Chiera/Gade (unan) to approve the replacement of the ventilation and heating
