Christine DeCamp Residency at Bolinas Gallery

This is the final week for Point Reyes artist Christine DeCamp's "residency" at the Bolinas Gallery. A closing reception will be held on Sunday March 25 from 2 to 5 pm. Christine has been painting LIVE in the gallery and speaking about her process during open hours. Christine's paintings are inspired by West Marin flora and fauna, her encounters with wildlife, mysticism and magic. The exhibit includes paintings, pottery and prints as well as smaller items.

Lisa Townsend Company

Reflecting on Albert Camus' investigation of free will in L'Étranger, Lisa Townsend questions the troubling impenitence experienced by Camus' protagonist, Mersault. indifference delivers a moving dancetheater commentary on cruelty, remorse, and the societal burdens imposed on cultural outsiders — strangers.

READING TO JOHN

On Tues. 3/27 at 10 am on KWMR (89.9) I'll feature an interview with Anne Lamott. She will also read excerpts from her brand-new book, Some Assembly Required, about her grandchild's first year. This is a Pledge Drive show and I hope my good friend Annie's generosity in supporting our local station will prompt some pledges from our listeners as well.

Stuart -

Your sad story about writing a song from the BCC mission statement reminds me of Woody Guthrie's problem of writing a song for the CIO PAC's Ladies Auxiliary. The CIO had formed perhaps the first organization to use the name Political Action Committee circa 1946. Then they formed a Ladies Auxiliary. I was at a party in Chicago where Woody and Bernie Asbel, a folk singer working for the CIO, appeared. Woody told how the Auxiliary asked him to create an anthem for them. He struggled for weeks with the problem and finally came up with this: O the Ladies Auxil-y-eye-ry / Is the best auxil-y-eye-ry. / If you want an auxil-y-eye-ry, / Call the Ladies Auxil-y-eye-ry.

The whole story is in the post "A Great Folk Music Party" in my blog (rkovach.wordpress.com/2007/06/06/20/)

Nuclear Abolition – the REAL way to save the unborn babies. (Courtesy Rachel Gertrude Johnson)

New Resistance To Nuclear Totalitarianism

As published in the March 15, 2012 Point Reyes Light

by James Heddle – EON – the Ecological Options Network

Nothing debunks the delusional corporate fantasy of a nuclear-powered future like the ongoing global disaster still radiating from Fukushima, the one-year anniversary of which was marked last Sunday with massive demonstrations in favor of nuclear abolition around the world.

It took just 18 days for the Fukushima fallout to circle the globe, create hotspots in North America and Europe, and reach the Southern Hemisphere, according to the United States Geological Survey.

Within ten weeks, infant deaths spiked 35% in San Francisco and Seattle, and 48% in Philadelphia, according to a study by Joseph Mangano and Janette Sherman based on CDC (Centers for Disease Control) statistics.

West Coast soil, milk and produce are still showing contaminated readings according to the UC Berkeley School of Nuclear Engineering. As recently as mid Feb. elevated levels of Cesium 134 and 137 were detected in other foods, berries, soil, water, etc..

Nevertheless, the Obama Administration and its nuclear industry backers continue to push for a so-called 'nuclear renaissance' paid for by tax-dollar loan guarantees and rate-payer surcharges. Obama's NRC (Nuclear Regulatory Commission) is freely issuing license extensions aged reactors that should already be in mothballs.

In effect, its a nuclear bailout that socializes the costs and risks and privatizes the profits.

That's because nuclear energy cannot survive in a 'free market environment.' Wall Street won't invest. Insurers will not insure. Democratic choice will not choose it - if given half a chance.

It can not survive in a transparent, democratic environment either. As Robert Jungk's classic 1979 book The New Tyranny: How Nuclear Power Enslaves Us showed, because of its vast 'security' vulnerabilities, nuclear energy is, at its core, a fundamentally totalitarian technology, requiring secrecy and authoritarian social controls to the max.

Already, in the face of mass public uprisings across the globe and the growth of the Occupy Movement here at home, power holders are moving to criminalize dissent with the passage of laws like the NDAA (National Defense Authorization Act) and HR 347, the Federal Restricted Buildings and Grounds Improvement Act of 2011. Will they be applied to anti-nuclear protests and non-violent civil disobedience actions?

Rather than acting in the public interest with strictly-enforced policies based on science, so-called 'regulatory agencies' like the NRC (Nuclear Regulatory Commission) and the IAEA (International Atomic Energy Agency) consistently fulfill their core mandate, which is to promote - not impede - the spread of nuclear energy technology.

Thus the internationally coordinated campaign to tamp down transparent reporting on the real human, environmental, planetary impacts of nuclear disasters like Three Mile Island, Chernobyl and Fukushima.

Then there's the inconvenient fact that nuclear power generation is inseparably joined at the hip with its Siamese Twin, nuclear weapons production and proliferation - has been from the gitgo of the 'Peaceful Atom' propaganda campaign.

Despite significant successes in the '70s and '80s, the transnational nuclear abolition movement has been quiet of late. Until, that is, the Fukushima wake-up call, the warhead wagging at Iran and the rise of the 'occupy movement(s)'. Will the awakening Beast of Public Dissent include abolition of nuclear power and weapons in its change agenda? Will Americans stand for the imposition of technocratic, totalitarian nuclear socialism disguised as 'the only technology that can save us from Climate Change?'

Will they be fooled by the fallacious claims that nuclear energy is 'carbon free,' when it is in fact carbon-intensive at every stage of the nuclear cycle from mining to milling to transport to storage, and depends on 'outside power' from coal and gas plants to cool its fuel storage pools? Not if a resurgent international anti-nuclear movement can help it.

In the bellwether state of California successful activists in the '70s and '80s rolled back a plan for dozens of reactors lining its coast. They enacted a law - which still stands today - prohibiting the building of more nuclear reactors until a solution for nuclear waste storage has been found. Now, more that 20 groups have come together in the newly-formed Nuclear Free California Network. Its goal: permanently closing down the state's remaining nukes at Diablo Canyon and San Onofre - both in earthquake and tsunami zones, just like Fukushima. The NFCN's Fukushima anniversary declaration is here: <http://eon3emfblog.net/?p=4596>

THE POOL in Bolinas

Dear Supporters of The Pool in Bolinas,

Your 160 responses to our recent pool survey strongly indicated to us that the you and others want to support having a community pool here. Now we need to reach out to all the citizens of Bolinas and Stinson Beach to see if we can count on a greater number of people who would be willing to support the pool.

We have prepared a second, more specific survey for that purpose. We are asking you to help us to do this by sending a donation to help us defray the $2,000 - $3,000 cost of printing and mailing this survey to all box-holders in our community.

If you chip in $20, or whatever is comfortable to you, we know that we can take this project to the next level. Your contribution is a tax-deductible donation payable to:

Mesa Park, the Firehouse Community Park Agency
Tax ID 26-4400751

Please send your check to:
The Pool, P.O. Box 147, Bolinas, CA 94924.

And let us know if you would like to be part of the team who help mail and get the word out about the survey.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

The Steering Committee for the Pool in Bolinas

Lamplighters Music Theatre was founded in 1952 to produce the comic operas of librettist W.S. Gilbert and composer Arthur Sullivan, and is now recognized as one of the world's pre-eminent Gilbert & Sullivan companies. The Lamplighters' repertoire includes all the surviving works of these creative geniuses, as well as a select group of operas and musicals by other composers that exemplify their artistic visions. The hallmarks of a Lamplighters production are lavish costumes and sets, live orchestra, excellent comic acting, and gorgeous unamplified singing that showcases the beauty and purity of the human voice. This show will feature an 11-piece orchestra and supertitles for easy sing along. Bring your own eye patch, matey!
