Follow Up to Caravanista Event

On Sunday, Feb. 24, a crowd in our village gathered to bear witness to the suffering, love, and courage of our neighbors to the South who have been forced to leave their homes to find safety from violence.

According to a Drs Without Border Report, in 2016, El Salvador and Honduras were ranked 2nd and 4th worldwide for the rate of violent death, joining Syria and Afghanistan in the top 5.

We heard 1st hand stories of people leaving their homeland, saw slides of shelters at the border in Tijuana.

What we heard was painful so we created a container of beauty and kindness to honor the bravery, generosity, and love of the mostly indigenous people fleeing and of our common humanity.

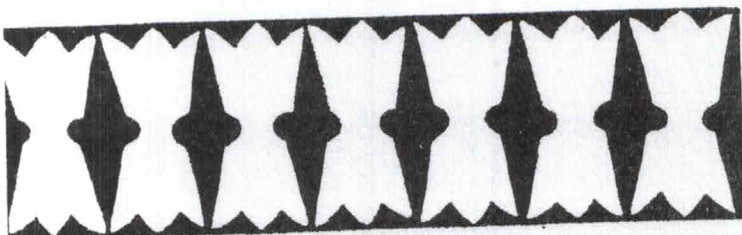

Thank you to all who gave so generously of their time and energy to make the event so successful. Here is a list: Veronica Garcia Hernandez, Catalina Garcia, Socorro Romo of WMCS, Oscar Corona, Ben L. of the Bo School, Jacob Leyva our cantante, Pat Dickens, Douglas Mundo and David Escobar of the Multicultural Center of Marin, Carolina Dutton of the Task Force on the Americas, Molly Brown, Tato of the Bo School, Liz Grace, Ed Chiera, Pam Fabry, Martine Algier, Jennie Pfeiffer, Martha Howard, attorney, Dinah and Noah of Inverness.

This was a fundraiser for the legal support group "Al Otro Lado", who provide workshops in migrant shelters in Tijuana and direct legal representation to detained asylum seekers. Al Otro Lado has been cited by Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, and Human Rights First. Money is still being collected. You may send a check for Al Otro Lado to Pamela Dake PO Box 1073, Bolinas, CA 94924.

Gratitude to Judy Molyneaux for donating 2 paintings for a raffle. They can be seen in the front window of the library. Stop by to see them. Thank you to Martine Algier who is selling raffle tickets. Info: 1 415 302-8419 or email martinealgier@gmail.com.

It takes a village. Deep appreciation and gratitude. May All Beings be Happy.

FRIDAY FILM REVIEW by JENNY RIVIERE

Bohemian Rhapsody (2018)

Rami Malek
 Lucy Boynton
 Gwilym Lee
 Mike Myers
 Allen Leech
 Tom Hollander

I've always liked the band Queen, but I had not a clue as to the background. Their hit song "We Are the Champions" has been in films such as Revenge of the Nerds and The Mighty Ducks. Rami Malek took on the role of iconic Freddie Mercury. He performed with such passion; indeed he deserved the Oscar win. Tough call though as he went up against Bradley Cooper, Christian Bale and veteran actor Willem Dafoe. From struggling with Freddie's sexual identity to his struggling with the family ties of his band life and getting influenced to go it solo, young Mr. Malek truly brought Freddie Mercury back to life with his portrayal.

The collaboration of the surviving Queen members made this a must see. It was wonderful to see them perform again at the Oscars. For co stars Rami Malek and Lucy Boynton, their love on screen transferred to real life. Hopefully they act together again in the near future.

BUY A RAFFLE TICKET AND HELP CENTRAL AMERICAN REFUGEES

Central American Refugees arriving at the border to seek asylum need help.

Many of you remember the terrible times of the 70's and 80's when our government was funding violent dictatorships in the countries from which these people are fleeing. The cultural cataclysm unfolding in their homelands has its origins back then. They undertake the dangerous journey to escape dreadful conditions we can barely imagine.

Al Otro Lado is legal team helping them. Last week these dedicated professionals were able to get 22 children, all under one year of age, reunited with their parents. The babies were found in what is called "a baby jail", and according to reports, all were sick. One child was only five months old. They had been separated for several months to a year.

Please join us in sending funds to keep the team working with parents like these.

You may donate by buying a raffle ticket and then you will have a chance win an original painting by Judy Molyneux.

Call Martine : 415 302 8419 to buy tickets in person or send a check made out to Al Otro Lado to POBox 871, 94924 and a ticket will be filled in with your name & contact info and placed in the container for the drawing. Tickets are 1 for $10, 3 for $25 and 6 for $50.

The drawing will be the last week in March. Watch for an announcement.

The two paintings from which the winner will choose are now hanging in the Children's Section of Bolinas Library.

Take a look and tell others about these beautiful paintings and the chance to reach out to our neighbors from the south.

SAVE the DATE Hand Habits, BCC 3/22

I'm helping to put together a special evening of music at the Community Center in two weeks.

Hand Habits, the brainchild of much-admired songwriter and session-guitarist Meg Duffy, are heading out on a big tour- first stop: Bolinas.

They just released their second album, placeholder, last Friday, and it is already receiving lots of well-deserved rave reviews.

Spin magazine calls it "stately and nocturnal guitar pop, arranged precisely and played with quiet conviction," NPR says it "evoke(s) waves of warm, pop-driven nostalgia, with equal doses of melancholy and optimism" and Rolling Stone put it on a short list of "music you need to know."

I could go on and do some more annoying name-dropping, but really, who cares what the hype machine says, take it from me: Hand Habits are a really interesting band, Meg is talented person, and I am stoked to help host them here in Bolinas.

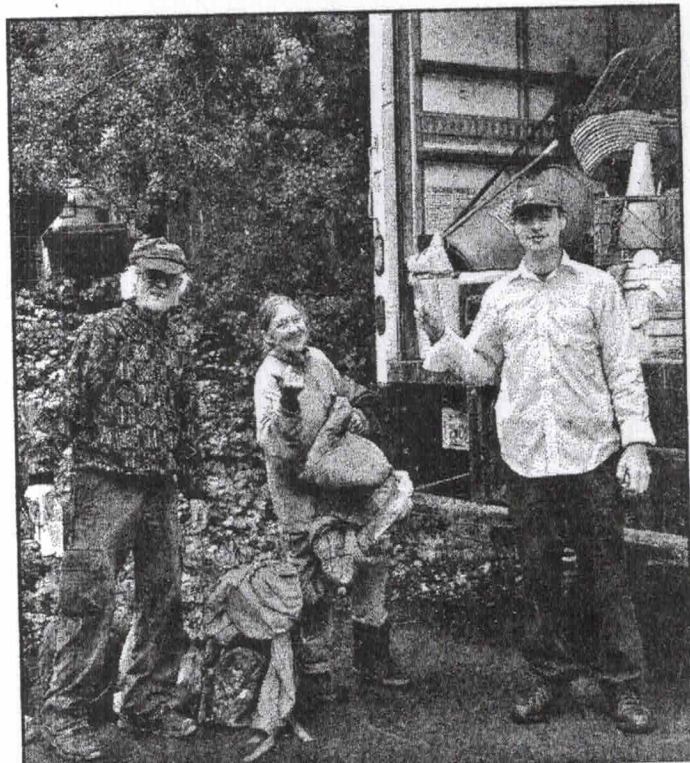

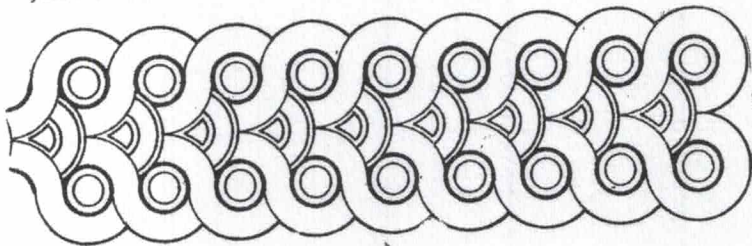

Alex Bleeker and Danny Vitali will open the night with an acoustic duo set, DJ Eric Johnson is bringing records to spin, misto reef lights will provide some trippy visuals, and C.C. Café will be making cocktails.

You can save 5 bucks, (and quell my anxiety that no-one is going to come) by picking-up advance tickets for $15 at www.eventbrite.com (type "hand habits" into the search bar and you'll see the event) but there will also be discounted locals tickets available at the door (keep an eye on the Hearsay for a special clip-out coupon)

Again, that Friday, 3/22, 7pm at the BCC

Gonna be a hoot; hope to see you there...

TSUNAMI EXERCISE

On Saturday, March 30th at 10:00 a.m. the Bolinas Fire Department and Bolinas Disaster Council will be conducting a VOLUNTARY TSUNAMI EVACUATION drill for the Downtown and Gospel Flats area.

We will be using AlertMarin to place a call to all landline home numbers in these areas with a prerecorded message at approximately 10:00 a.m. Saturday March 30th. Alert Marin will also send text messages to all registered cell phones in these areas. We encourage everyone to participate as the evacuation from these areas will likely be the same during a real event.

If you choose to participate, please proceed in your vehicle to the Bolinas Fire Station on Mesa Rd. At the fire station you will find information on emergency preparedness from the Fire Department, Disaster Council, and West Marin CERT.

During a real event, we will use Alert Marin to deliver incident-specific information or potentially life-saving instructions. To receive "Alert Marin" texts and find out more about Alert Marin, go to www.AlertMarin.org

While this exercise is focused on the low lying areas, all citizens of Bolinas are encouraged to stop by the fire station to pick up information about Emergency Preparedness.

During the exercise you may see emergency vehicles moving throughout your neighborhood to simulate an actual response. This is not only great practice for us but it also allows us to familiarize ourselves with your neighborhood and identify potential hazards.

For further information, please go to: www.bolinasfire.org or call the fire station at 868-1566.

That Good Night: On Dignity, Suffering, and the Role of Medicine in Life's Eleventh Hour
 ~Part of the End-of-Life Conversations Series~
 ~Co-presented with the Mesa Refute and Point Reyes Books

Join TNS Host Steve Heilig in conversation with physician, author, and medical ethicist Sunita Puri in the next in our End-of-Life Conversations series. In her new book, That Good Night: Life and Medicine in the Eleventh Hour, she weaves evocative stories of her family and the patients she cares for in a meditation on impermanence and the role of medicine in helping us to live and die well. Kirkus Reviews magazine calls her book, "A profound meditation on a problem many of us will face; worthy of being mentioned in the same breath as Atul Gawande's Being Mortal."

Dear Community

Please join in a community dialogue about health care in our community with Coastal Health Alliance CEO, Steve Siegel, and Doctor Anna O'Malley at 6pm on Tuesday, March 19th at the Bolinas Firehouse.

Stinson Beach and Bolinas have long benefited from the presence of local medical care in our clinics which were built and supported by donations from many individuals, plus Marin County and Federal funds.

Many have noticed changes in the experience of receiving care there, and have voiced concerns. Similarly, those working within the changing health care system are experiencing challenges and would like to make things better.

We believe that creating the opportunity for mutual dialogue between community and clinic will be good for this important relationship, and will yield positive Solutions and increased understanding. Please do come prepared to listen, to share, and to be a part of the solution-finding effort.

To facilitate an efficient understanding of the scope of concerns, please consider writing an email with your experiences to Ssieiel@coastalhealthb.net and copy to: dales_jah@yahoo.com (there's an underscore between the sand the j) by March 15th.

Please include suggestions you may have to make the clinic work well for you and your family.
