We are instead going to do a raffle drawing at the opening of the poetry reading. So please put a little note in the calendar. I wrote the following but whatever you think best way to do it will be appreciated. Thanks, Martine Algier

IDEALIZED LIRENESS

Hello and Happy Full Moon!

The Full Moon peaked at 4:12 AM this morning. This 2nd consecutive Full Moon in relationship-oriented Libra is at the last degree creating a sense of urgency. As you reflect, something is revealed and something has to be released. We're being seriously prodded by the planets to take steps that will initiate a new balance in our relationship to each other, to ourselves...and to nature.

Mercury moved out of its shadow period in Pisces today and into fiery Aries. The brain fog is finally lifting. Mercury will travel through confident and forthright Aries until May 6th demanding the end of procrastination. It can also make it easier to say what we mean and mean what we say. However, ruthlessness and rudeness are to be avoided, so breathing and thinking before speaking can be imperative.

Tough decisions are called for. Use this pivotal Full Moon release point to release judgement. Now ask yourself if your relationships are aligned with your personal values. The Moon moved into emotionally intense Scorpio at 5:41 AM this morning further revealing the deeper baggage that's calling for elimination.

You're closing a chapter in your life. A gift of this Full Moon is the fulfillment of understanding. The puzzle pieces come together and a breakthrough is imminent.

Find out what this turning point and breakthrough mean for you and harness the energies of this new balance along with the big celestial changes of 2019 with a reading. I'll be in Bolinas for 10 days beginning April 26th. Text me at 347 752-3280 and let's set up your appointment.

May the beauty, harmony, grace and love of this Libra Full Moon's ruler, Venus, be yours. And as for me...now, as always, I love you to the Moon!

FREE BOX on THIN ICE

At this week's Community Center board meeting, mention was made of the increasing amounts of trash and bulky furniture accumulating around the Free Box.

Dump runs are becoming numerous, a hard expense to shoulder, especially since it would be nice to replace the Free Box's leaky roof before next winter.

There was even talk of closing the Free Box for a period of time if the junk problem persists.

Please, let's keep this good thing going; if we see someone dumping a dead fridge or an old couch, let's kindly advise against: "No TV's in the Free Box!"

Yours Faithfully,

Friday Film Review by Jenny Riviere

Steve Coogan
John C Reilly
Shirley Henderson
Nina Arianda
Danny Huston

Native of England Stanley Laurel and American Oliver Hardy made one of the worlds' most beloved comedy teams, performing both live and in 107 short films together. Years after their glory days, they did a tour of England, in hopes they could nail just one more picture. You see their lives behind the laughs, from their protective wives, to their own ideas of what direction they should go in. After Oliver Hardy's death in 1957, his loyal friend Stan Laurel never got on stage again, however until his own death in 1965, he continued to write comedy sketches.
