BCLT Weekly Report:

Happy Friday our fabulous friends! As you are well aware, the BCLT is busy bringing more affordable living opportunities to Bolinas and making community sustainability our top priority.

Here's a quick update on what's going on behind the scenes and what we've been working on this week. Enjoy your Hearsay read, get your toes in the ocean and soak in these long summer days. Cheers!

Properties and projects:

- We are currently waiting for coastal permits to come through for 430 Aspen and once they do, we can apply for building permits. The property will consist of a one bedroom main house and a one bedroom second unit. Things are moving forward!
- Progress has been made on our septic program and we are in discussion with the Environmental Health Department of Marin County and the State Regional Water Quality Control Board to try to work out the details.

Repairs and upgrades:

- The Gibson House is freshly painted and we think she looks beautiful, what an improvement!
- 6 Wharf has been power-washed and is so fresh and so clean! We are currently looking into several energy efficiency upgrade opportunities for this property and are excited to see what we might be able to do to make 6 Wharf greener and more efficient.

Grants, fundraising and finances:

- We have received a grant from the West Marin Fund for $5,000 to help with our outreach program. This grant will give us more room for educational opportunities, events and meetings with and for you, our community! It will help us continue to improve our efforts of transparency.

Community engagement:

- Last Sunday we held a community discussion with our Low-Income Advisory Committee to have a conversation about what community means, what we value about Bolinas and in what ways there could be better support for our low-income residents. It's always a nice experience to share with each other and be reminded of the things that matter. From this discussion we decided some opportunities for education around tenant rights and services that are available in Marin for the varied kinds of low-income residents in Bolinas could be a big help, and we are excited to make this possible.

General news and upcoming events:

- We have a new office at 22 Brighton Ave!! When the Commons decided to call things quits, they contacted us and offered us the space, and we are beyond grateful. We are thrilled to have a space that will accommodate our staff and help us accomplish the big projects we are working on. We will be in the space starting early next week, come say hi!
- If you haven't noticed our gas prices have been lowered, if you're in need of a fill, please come to Bo-GAS and support your local gas station.
- Upcoming: We will be in the 4th of July Parade, look for us and afterward stop by the gas station to buy a new and exciting limited edition BCLT T-shirt or sweatshirt with art by Lucian Moon. July 27th we will be putting on a second showing of HOME II - Bolinas stories worth telling, at the Community Center, we can't wait to share this special experience with more of you, keep your eyes peeled for posters and info which will be out next week!

If you have any questions, comments or concerns, give us a call or email us, we love to hear from you.

Greetings to our CommUnity,

This Sunday we are having a LOVE Party at the BCC, and we hoping to see everybody, as we guarantee it will be Uplifting!

It starts nice n early 5pm, with a delicious Dinner and an Acoustic Showcase. This will fuse into an old school original style Jamaican Dance, with Vinyl selections and all the Artists sharing the stage and passing the mic around in perfect harmony As One! As far as the lineup (see flyer) we are honored to have so many internationally acclaimed artists, who also happen to be some of my very favorite and are like family, coming together in Support of Garnett! He will be 18 next month, and we are raising funds to get him a car with hand controls. He has grown into a very well centered, responsible young man, who we are so proud of! He is doing amazing things and reaching far in the world of wheelchair sports, he is truly unlimited, and has turned what some would call a disability, into a strength. He is so ready to drive, and with his busy schedule this will help him become more independent n self sufficient!

There will be beautiful merchandise and Art for sale to support the cause, by a few of us including myself, and the amazingly talented and in high demand July Guzman and more! It's also my Birthday Celebration, but as a mother that comes after the rest. Please join us, it really will be a Love Party, which is something we could all use more of!

If you cant make it but would like to contribute, our po box is 1005 and both Garnett Silver-Hall and I have redwood credit union and paypal... In Gratitude ~ Maitreya Rose Silver

Emily Blunt
Lin-Manuel Miranda
Colin Firth
Emily Mortimer
Jack Whishaw
Dick Van Dyke
Julie Walters
Meryl Streep
Angela Lansbury

This fun fantasy film full of imagination is a sweet follow up to the Mary Poppins original with Julie Andrews and Dick Van Dyke. It focuses on the next generation of the Banks family, with Michael's young children getting caught up with the magical nanny. Again, in her unique ways, she helps the family in their time of distress. The music is fun and up lifting, and it is a welcome escape from some harsh realities.

HOORAY! HOORAY!
JAZZ CAFE!

Big hugs and thanks to all the friends who worked so beautifully to make last Saturday's Jazz Cafe the high, memorable event that it was.

To Temple and William McGovern, who worked tirelessly before and after the show to help create our vision of a cozy jazz cafe--and who kept bringing out more and more chairs as the hall filled up.

To Magi Barror--big hugs--who volunteered his sound system and his technical artistry, allowing us musicians to have really primo sound quality though playing down on the Center floor to be close to the audience.

To Don Smith, who (amazingly for a man his age) clambered Tarzanishly among the roof beams, setting spotlights for the players and for Judy's paintings.

To Judy Molyneux, whose new oceanscapes graced the hall with the power of wildness.

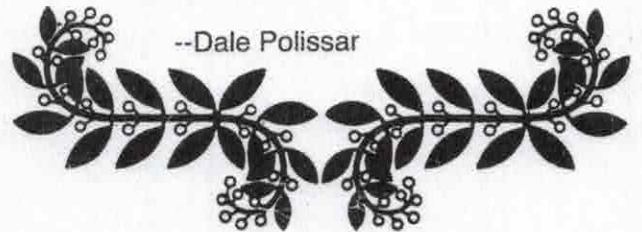

To the outstanding Bolinas audience, who responded to our music with such heart and sophistication. (The musicians remarked, "What a great audience!")

To Micah and Suzanne, our gracious hostesses at the door.

To Julie Augustine for her elegant desserts--yum!

And, finally, to the musicians. What a gathering of talent! For me, it was ecstasy to play with such superb artists: my longtime partner Si Perkoff on keyboard; our own Bolinas stars Piro Patron on bass and Michael Pinkham on drums; Rick Gordon, our guest singer; and, of course, Paul McCandless, who--in the midst of doing all sorts of festival and club gigs--returned to the town he lived in and loved, and, I'm told, was quite moved by the audience's heartfelt response. What a night!

A Declaration

In BOLINAS, July 4, 2019:

When in the Course of human and other species' spiritual and political events, it becomes necessary for one Gaia to hold these socially acknowledged nature-loving truths to be self-evident: That the concept of community, including all living organisms and land forms, exists in rare form in Bolinas; that all men and women and dogs and cats and skunks, foxes, fishes birds plants are created equal, that to like to drink the water out of the lakes to like to eat the blueberries to like the bears is not hatred to hotels and motor boats; That all are endowed by their chosen Cosmos with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness (airplanes to go over the ocean) and to make it beautiful.

Get the Holiday Memo on Water Safety, Fireworks Ban

Have fun on the Fourth of July in buoyant and non-combustible ways

San Rafael, CA – Some safety messaging sounds like a broken record, but sometimes the repetition saves lives. The Marin County Fire Department, Marin County Parks and first-responders from local agencies are preparing for a busy summer and Fourth of July holiday by urging everyone to practice water safety around the ocean, bay and pools, and practice abstinence on fireworks.

When it comes to fireworks, it should be easy to remember: All forms of fireworks are illegal in Marin. The fireworks ordinance will be enforced to reduce fire risk, protect natural resources and – most importantly – to preserve personal safety.

All illegal activities and behavior issues witnessed by Marin County Parks rangers will be reported to law enforcement or fire agencies, and enforcement will take place whether or not an incident takes place on private property or at a County government property. A misdemeanor offense of using or possessing fireworks in Marin could cost an offender $410 – that's $100 for the base fine plus $310 in penalty assessments and surcharges.
