GEOGRAPHY OF HOPE CONFERENCE

Point Reyes Books and the Geography of Hope present Igniting the Green Fire—Finding Hope in Aldo Leopold's Land Ethic, the first West Coast gathering of the world's foremost Aldo Leopold experts. The author of Sand County Almanac, Leopold is regarded by many as the most influential conservation thinker of the twentieth century. His legacy continues to inform and inspire us in West Marin where his themes of community-based conservation and a land ethic are evident in our preserved parklands, protected farmland, and the working landscape.

The weekend events are held in several locations. All Saturday morning sessions on March 16 are at the Dance Palace. GOH also features field trips, spirited conversations and presentations by prominent authors, naturalists, and conservation leaders. Price includes six panels, three meals, a field trip, and a good time. Details and registration at www.ptreyes-books.com

Saturday, March 16 / 8:30 AM
Tickets: $150 through January 15 / $200 after January 15

GOLDEN BOUGH—A CELTIC ST. PADDY'S DAY CONCERT

Rooted in the traditional Celtic music of the seven Celtic nations (Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Cornwall, The Isle of Man, French Brittany, and Spanish Galicia), Golden Bough has become a popular and in-demand group on both sides of the Atlantic. Since their formation in 1980, this trio of modern day minstrels has traveled great distances to numerous countries, to bring their music to enthusiastic folk fans the world over. Backing themselves on an array of acoustic instruments, including Celtic harp, guitar, octave-mandolin, mandolin, accordion, violin, penny-whistle and bodhran, they blend their voices in the pristine harmonies that have become a Golden Bough trademark. To date they have released more than thirty recordings. In the recording studio, as well as on stage, Golden Bough captures the essence and joy of traditional music.

Saturday, March 16 / 8 PM
Tickets $24 general / $22 seniors / $12 youth

ST. PATRICK'S DAY BBQ

The 57th annual festival and barbecue is held indoors, rain or shine. The famous barbecued chicken dinner includes a half-chicken for adults, a quarter-chicken for children, plus pasta, salad, roll, and milk or coffee. Tickets for the dinner and the famous raffle (first prize $1,200, second prize $700, third prize $500) are available at the door. A fabulous silent auction of art, jewelry, restaurant meals, entertainment, excursions, etc., will be held (closes at 3:45 PM). There will also be games, booths, homemade baked goodies, wine, beer, and other refreshments.

The Sequel!

How Did You Find Bolinas?

Perhaps you remember "How Did You Find Bolinas?" a videotape that Marc Sanchez-Corea and I made 8 years ago. We asked 50 people to tell their stories about discovering Bolinas for the first time.

We're going to do it again - this Sunday, March 17. We'll be setting up in the Community Plaza and videotaping from 12noon until 2pm.

Marc has lived in Bolinas for many years and is a cameraman for KGO-TV News. He has broadcast quality equipment and a tender touch affixing the tiny lavalier microphone.

I'll be the interviewer, although there's only one question. "How did you find Bolinas?"

The answers to the question in the previous video were often serendipitous but sometimes mundane ("I was born here") With skillful editing even the most ordinary explanations are humorous and entertaining.

I invite everyone to participate in the Sequel (except those that were in the first one.) You will need to sign a standard release form.

Marc and I are doing this out of our love for this remarkable town and its citizens. Production costs are the only thing that will be reimbursed.

We'll be showcasing the finished product at a gala premiere and selling DVD copies to benefit the Community Center.

This is a great opportunity to participate in a historic documentary. I look forward to asking you the question in the Plaza on Sunday.

JAMES MARTIN CARLOW
JULY 28, 1930 - MARCH 8, 2013

I sadly report the passing of my uncle, James Martin Carlow, on March 8, 2013. He moved to Bolinas in the 1940's, attended Bolinas School and graduated from Tamalpais High School.

A memorial service for him will be held on Thursday, March 14, 2013, at 1:00 pm at the Campagna Lima Mortuary, 600 S. 2nd St., San Jose, CA.

Burial will be in the Bolinas Cemetery at 1:00 pm on Friday, March 15, 2013. He will be laid to rest next to his first wife, Janet Carlow, his brother, Jay Carlow, his mother, Ethel, and his stepfather, John Fulton (Jack) Irwin.

After the burial, there will be light refreshments served at my home at 440 Dogwood Road, Bolinas.

For more information, you may call me at 868-2004.

DAYLONG RETREAT at GREEN GULCH
Yin Yoga & Meditation
Sunday March 17, 9:30-5:00

Everyone is welcome, and absolutely no yoga or meditation experience is necessary. Led by Debbie Daly, a longtime yoga teacher on the staff at Yoga Toes in Point Reyes. Price is $95 in advance, $115 day of retreat, vegetarian lunch included. Green Gulch is located at 1601 Highway 1 in Muir Beach. More info & registration at www.debbiedaly.com or 415-663-4018 .

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

(1) St Patrick's Day, with the annual homecoming game/meeting/awards ceremony bash of the Bolinas Soccer Club, going on 40 years now.

(2) It's spring planting time! (At least for favas, peas, radishes and the like)

(3) Babysitting the new grandchild, so Mama could see Chrome Johnson at the bar.

Annual seal closures in effect

Point Reyes National Seashore officials last week announced the temporary closure of harbor seal pupping areas through June 30. Drakes Estero is closed to kayakers and canoes, and access to the east side of Hog Island is prohibited. Beachgoers should stay at least 100 yards away from resting seals, and should never approach seal pups that appear abandoned; their mothers are likely only temporarily absent. Seals haul out along Tomales Bay and at Tomales Point, Double Point and Bolinas Lagoon; the local breeding population comprises 20 percent of the state's total, according to a press release.

WEEKLY WRAP & RECAP 3/11/13

From Jenniepfeiffer

The week ended yesterday with that most outrageously ridiculous (in my opinion) semiannual day when some fool's concept that daylight can be saved is foisted on the good people of California and we have to mess with the clocks. It's a day to wake in a stress sweat, trying to remember if we're springing forward in time, setting clocks ahead or back. Did we remember to do it at 1:00 a.m., stumbling in after a bodacious night of Chrome Johnson music at Smiley's? Are we an hour late? Are we an hour early? And it happens every spring, just when I'm loving waking to sweet bird warbling at earlier dawn light. Must we mess with the clocks twice every year? Many other places in the world, other states in our own country, do not perpetuate such a humorless joke on their citizens. I don't get it. It puts us out of sync with Nature. I would like to see us set the time how we like it, springing ahead or falling back, & leave it there.

That said, moving on through the week we saw some school business: Monday's Kindergarten Registration for next year's class of maybe 15 students; then Tuesday's regular monthly Board of Trustees meeting, where, among other items, we discussed the upcoming June ballot measure, requesting an extension of our regular $250 a parcel tax with a bump up to $300 - more chance for conversation about this in coming months.

It was unfortunate the school meeting conflicted with both the Community Night Free Movie, and the Stories from Life, which I heard was wonderfully entertaining

After the week's light rain - with great windy bluster - we had a marvelous sunny day Saturday for the monthly 2nd Saturday Sidewalk Sale on the Square/Shop and Swap/Flea Market/Royal Rummage Recycling event at Brighton Square. The "sale" bell was ringing and the camaraderie was nonstop, as community members stopped by to chat and swap and enjoy Carmen's delicious hot tamales, listening to StuArt's new tunes, with Ned on the fiddle. You have a whole month now to collect your items, or work on your art, to sell at next month's 2nd Saturday Sale, which will be April 9th Interesting how three months in a row have Saturday on the 9th

Saturday was also Soup Saturday, which is another event on the 2nd Saturday of the month, and is a lovely community building happening, that serves up a choice of soups - always one of June's vegetarian specials - and chips or corn bread to go along with, held at St. Aidens, but is non-denominational, no church affiliation required. There is no charge for this monthly event.

Also Saturday, there were some new exhibits opening at the Bolinas Museum. Sandy Dierks' exquisite collection of Mola and Huipil Panels, along with her amazing quilt work and some beautiful watercolors by Dennis Dierks on display, was a highlight of the day.

In the Coastal Marin Artists' Gallery, Dan McCormick is showing lovely, darker palate paintings of shore and waterways, and some boating whimsey.

The Photography of Patty Mulligan is stunning, with reverse image ink jet printing on glass, backed with 22k gold paint, which picks up every nuance of light, making them all appear to be back lit and gives them a 3D look. They are captivating, and reminiscent of my childhood fascination with "view master" images.

I highly recommend a look at all of these beautiful exhibits as you're out and about enjoying this wonderful weather, no mater what time your clock says. jp
