The Lyrid meteor shower peaks this year just before dawn on Monday, April 22 on the West Coast, with the radiant high in the sky after the bright gibbous moon has set. Those on the East Coast are not well positioned as the peak comes after they are already in daylight. Last year, an exploding Lyrid fireball caused a sonic boom that shook Northern California and Nevada, and was clearly visible even in the morning daylight.

KIT WALKER & MARIANA INGOLD
This coming together of two original musical beings, has given birth to a new sound, a healing and life-affirming journey into a new world of music, both grounded and spacious, earthy and transcendental. Mariana Ingold is a composer, instrumentalist, singer, teacher and key contributor to the movement of Uruguayan music. Mariana was born into a musical family and has been active professionally as an artist since 1977 in Uruguay and internationally. Keyboard innovator Kit Walker thrives on new musical horizons. Although he was in his early years classically trained as a pianist, pipe organist, and composer, Kit wasn't content to stop there. His ground-breaking albums for Windham Hill Jazz, helped to broaden the spectrum of contemporary jazz.

ALPHABETICALLY BY EVENT, THE WEEK WENT SOMETHING LIKE THIS:

ART AND GARDEN PLANT MAGIC - all weekend long at the Community Center, opening Friday evening, ending Sunday at 5:00 with the closing of the silent auction. There were so many beautiful plants for sale, along with plant magic themed art, and many excellent auction items. There were oysters with fine oyster eating music in the plaza all weekend, and the food menu inside the hall was reasonably priced and delicious. Outdoor walks and informative talks on topics such as seed saving, sustainable gardening, and all the magic of plants, filled the weekend with information, and the Mad Hatter tea party in the plaza was a delightful bit of whimsy. There could have been many more people taking advantage of this wonderful event, but it was a beautiful beach day, and there was so much going on in the area celebrating Earth Day, that attendance was not up to capacity for such a fine spring event.

BOLINAS-STINSON SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING was Tuesday night in the school library. The big conversation this time of year is class configuration for next year. It’s looking like this topic is still ongoing.

BOLINAS COMMUNITY PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT Wednesday night at the Fire House meeting room was a public hearing about the paving of our downtown roads, which is scheduled to happen this summer, but might need to be put off again because of permit delays. Department of Transportation will be looking into installing speed humps on Wharf Road.

CHARLIE DOCHERTY at the Sweetwater, Monday night, which I’m sad to say we missed because we were in transit back from New Orleans French Quarter Fest, one of the best food and music festivals going anywhere.

EARTH DAY had lots of beach celebrations, packing all West Marin Beaches.

FRENCH QUARTER FEST IN NEW ORLEANS ended with the GHASTLY NATIONAL NEWS OF BOSTON MARATHON BOMBING & TEXAS FERTILIZER PLANT EXPLOSION. Happenings in the bigger world are getting more and more stressful. Heartfelt condolences to all who suffered losses in these tragedies. Press on Regardless.

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

(1) Having competent, cheerful backup, namely June McAdams, at the Hearsay, to fill in when I absconded to New Orleans. Thank you, June.

(2) New Orleans. I just like knowing that there’s a whole city of people for whom partying and making music is a way of life.

(3) Having our adored MsKitty still with us. We almost lost her to bladder stones this weekend, but the wonderful staff at Pt Reyes Animal Hospital pulled her through. Thank you Anne Castro & Mary Whitney.

5 Things You Didn’t Know You Can Recycle

1. Appliances: Many stores will recycle your old appliance when you purchase a new one. Goodwill accepts working appliances. Go to www.goodwill.org, or you can contact the Steel Recycling Institute to recycle them at www.recycle-steel.org.

4. Clothes: Wearable clothes can go to your local Goodwill outlet or shelter. Donate wearable women’s business clothing to the nonprofit Dress for Success, which gives them to low-income women as they search for jobs: www.dressforsuccess.org. Offer unwearable clothes to local animal boarding and shelter facilities, which often use them as pet bedding.

FROM VI©KASA
Well lately since I got Dragon speak I’ve been emailing people never would’ve emails before. I just thought that I would share this one recipe with you guys cause it’s just so amazing and it’s any vegetable practically: broccoli, cauliflower, kale, chard, brussel sprouts shaved. It’s incredibly flexible.
I spray olive oil on a parchment paper placed on baking sheet. Drizzle olive oil on piled up veggies on a baking sheet on top of parchment paper. Add some garlic minced or powdered and lemon juice then add seasoning. You can use soy sauce & ginger or salt and pepper. Really good on this is smoked Paprika from Spain it is delicious. Sprinkle on Brewers yeast the key to the whole thing. I use a lot, it’s an acquired taste and I acquired it early and I love it on my popcorn so does my dog Rosebud.

I just got back from New Orleans it was a remarkable experience and eating everything good in sight including shrimp Po boys from Galitois. I will make a art book about it I hope. Yes, it was worth well worth it I walked so much I did not gain an inch! So that does work that exercise thing. I’m trying to get back on the horse that throws me. Can you believe I ran into Jennie & Ned, Bolinas folk at the amazing French Quarter festival where their nephew was performing.
So I am back and getting ready for the Dance Palace Camp. Also this event will sell out and I want my friends to get to do it soon fun.
