Dance Palace Summer Camp 2019!

06/17/2019 - 9:00am to 3:00pm thru 06/20/2019 - 9:00am to 3:00pm

DANCE PALACE CAMP is a place where children can be themselves while participating in traditional, good old-fashioned summer camp activities in a community of caring people. Kids 6-12 explore the West Marin environment, and foster their creativity and imagination with fun, hands-on, activities that build friendships, kindness, cooperation, and encourage respect for our planet. Campers are clustered by age into 3 groups of 10 to 15 children and take part in a wide variety of activities daily. With our low camper-to-staff ratio (7:1), we provide high quality, personal attention to all campers and their families.

What Happened: 6-17-19
Jenniefieffer's Monday Morning Recap

It was another busy week, bringing us halfway through June, the halfway point of this zipping-past-fast year. It's also bringing us to our 6th full moon of 2019, and the upcoming summer solstice this Friday. Whether we will see tonight's full moon is questionable, the fog being thick this morning as I sit down to write this recap of the past week.

It was the end of the school year, with all of the wrap-up activities that entails. Wednesday night was the Middle school dance, the last ballroom dance event of Don Jolley's, and his life dance partner, Cenize's, twenty years of teaching the intricacies of navigating the dance floor, putting steps to music, and replacing timidity and self-consciousness with poise and confidence. The students' expertise at gracefully leading and following a variety of partners, then thoughtfully returning them to their seats, showing excellent manners, was delightful to watch, filling the heart with emotion that now and then had to spill out with tears of gratitude. Thanks to them for all those years of giving our students these important skills.

Thursday was graduation, with the eight graduates looking beautiful and ready to move on to new adventures. There were inspiring comments, gracious thanks from students to all the teachers and staff who have worked every day to give them a well-kept campus and the best possible educational experience. Then once again, Suki Ferrari prepared a lovely lunch for the families of the graduating 8th graders, as she has done for so many years. Many thanks to her.

Saturday was a fund-raiser for the Spectrum Surf Camp, which was at the exact same time as my trip to the airport to pick up granddaughter Simone, returning from a kindergarten year in Montreal. I was sorry to miss it, as I have immense respect and admiration for the work that Natalie Pepper does to provide an opportunity for students with a variety of learning skills to be able to engage in the joy of being in the water, riding waves, experiencing the out-of-doors.

Sunday was Father's Day and Baby blessing day, always a delightful day of community. This year there were 21 babies blessed, maybe some sort of a record. Many thanks to Magi for hosting, and to all those who helped with decorations and food preparations.

The last school board meeting of the year is coming up tomorrow, so if you have issues or comments, that's the time to do it, or wait for next year. Happy Solstice, JP

FOUR GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

- Summer solstice. This Friday, Jump aboard the great wheel of the cosmos while you can, it's summer!
- Saturday's version of the annual baby blessing— 21 babies this year! I like having it in the park. It's cozier.
- Getting some relief from the heat. I know the guys (and women) in the trades were grateful.
- Our granddaughter is back! Say hello to Simone if you see her around.

 precedent. Its on a case by
