It was a wild scene in front of the Freebox on Saturday when a pop-up fashion boutique popped up. Fancy costumes, gowns and dresses were on display and free for the taking. The pop-up costume shop was the brainchild of Jessica Dean Harrison (third from the right in the photo above) I asked her to explain herself for the Hearsay. -StuArt

“Hello Hearsay, my name is Jessica Dean Harrison and these costumes belonged to my Godmother, Julie Goodanetz. She started The Costume Shop in Petaluma in 1972.
Julie handmade thousands of costumes over 40 years. She made costumes for the Renaissance faire, the Dickens fair, local plays and parades. She made all the parade floats for the annual Chicken & Egg Festival in Petaluma.

The Costume Shop was on her farm in Petaluma. The farm also included a Christmas tree farm, a pumpkin patch and a petting zoo.

Her dream was Hollywood. When she passed away 6 years ago, I took about 500 costumes to Hollywood. For two years I had a studio in Hollywood where I rented the costumes to filmmakers, artists and musicians.
I’m hoping to write a book about my Godmother and compile her drawings, notes and old images from the Costume Shop. I’ll include newer images of the costumes in Hollywood.
Long Live Julie!”
Bolinas Marine Lab Coalition Endorses Three Candidates in Marin Community College District Governing Board Member Election

Marin County, California – October 22, 2018—The Bolinas Marine Lab Coalition is a group of citizens, scientists, educators, nonprofits and others formed in late 2017 to encourage the College of Marin to place its Bolinas Field Station back in service for hands on science training for its students and continued research with respect to the ecologically important adjacent Bolinas Lagoon and Duxbury Reef areas that has been in process since the College gained ownership of the Field Station in the 1950s. It has been closed since 2005.

The Coalition wholeheartedly endorses George Rothbart for Marin Community College District Governing Board Member as he has made restoring the Field Station for programmatic use by teachers and students a centerpiece of his campaign.

The Coalition also endorses incumbents Wanden Treanor and Diana Conti with the understanding that, although they have been hesitant to take action in the past, they now understand the ability of the College to place the Field Station back in service and have committed to doing so.

Mirta Guzman will have our BIG altar back
Serving Pozole, Soup and Hot Chocolate

You are invited to the celebration of a traditional Latin American holiday that combines pre-Colombian festivals and indigenous traditions with European rituals for honoring the dead. It is celebrated every year at this same time as Halloween and the Christian holy days of All Saints Day and All Souls Day.

In homes, families arrange "ofrendas" or altars. Tables are covered with fruit, flowers, vegetables, bread, candy, candles, incense, photos of the deceased, papel picado (paper cut-outs) represent the sky. Marigold petals are sprinkled to create a path for the spirits to follow on their return.

Please feel free to bring photos of those who have passed over, along with mementos and flowers.

The hall will be open for the honoring of "Día de los Angelitos" (remembering children who have died). Thursday Nov 1 from 8am-10pm.

On Friday Nov. 2, Día de los Muertos, the BCC will be open from 8am to 10pm. This day is not a sad time, but one rather of remembering and rejoicing. Musicians are welcome.

Please join us for any or all of the celebration you can. To volunteer: watch over the altar or bake some sweets for the BCC to sell which will help cover the cost of the altar, please call 666-2128 or email katierose@bocenter.org.

Jueves 1 de noviembre 8am -10pm

Viernes 2 de noviembre de 8am a 10pm, ENTRADA GRATUITA

Mirta Guzmán tendrá nuestro gran altar de vuelta
Sirviendo Pozole, Sopa Y Chocolate Caliente

Usted está invitado a la celebración de una fiesta tradicional latinoamericana que combina festividades precolombinas y tradiciones indígenas con rituales europeos para honrar a los muertos. Se celebra todos los años a esta misma hora que Halloween y los días santos cristianos del Día de Todos los Santos y del Día de los Difuntos.

En los hogares, las familias organizan "ofrendas" o altares. Las mesas están cubiertas con frutas, flores, verduras, pan, dulces, velas, incienso, fotos del difunto, papel picado (recones de papel) representan el cielo. Los pétalos de caléndula se rocian para crear un camino para que los espíritus los sigan cuando regresen.

Por favor, síntase libre de traer fotos de los que han pasado, junto con recuerdos y flores.

La sala estará abierta para el honores del "Día de los Angelitos" (recordando a los niños que han muerto), el jueves 1 de noviembre, de 8 a.m. a 10 p.m.

El viernes 2 de noviembre, Día de los Muertos, el BCC estará abierto de 8am a 10pm. Este día no es un momento triste, sino más bien en recordar y regocijarse. Los músicos son bienvenidos.

Por favor, únase a nosotros para cualquiera o toda la celebración que pueda. Para ser voluntario: vigile el altar o haga algunos dulces para que los venda el BCC, que ayudarán a cubrir el costo del altar, llame al 666-2128 o envíe un correo electrónico katierose@bocenter.org.

letter from a friend

Gmail - Fwd: NOVEMBER 6

Please forgive my imposition on our friendship for a purpose that is at least in part political. For many of you, I have no way of knowing your political views; but it is my firm conviction that the current election cycle makes it imperative that every one of us cast a vote and that—left, right or center—we vote for Democratic candidates. For some, it may be tedious repetition of the obvious; to those, I apologize in advance.

I came to America as a green-card immigrant in 1964. I became a citizen in 1972. I thought to leave behind a culture still dominated politically by prejudice and class-consciousness and to find, here, a truly functioning democracy. Given our current socio-political environment, it has become painfully clear that democracy cannot survive, let alone thrive, on a one-party system—yet that is what we have effectively arrived at.

The coming election is about more than politics. It is about whether our vulnerable democracy can survive a period in which reckless, dangerously uninformed and nationalist authoritarianism runs wild, unimpeded by the constitutionally provided "checks and balances" that were intended to prevent precisely this eventuality.

Your vote and mine will determine the existence of an effective oppositional power, which we all depend on to assure the persistence of a free society. For this reason alone, if not out of habitual partisan loyalty, I ask you to join me in casting your vote to save us from the looming and imminent threat of tyranny.

If this plea strikes a chord with you and you share my concern, I ask you to pass it on to your own friends, and friends of friends. Should my letter seem like a useful tool in broadcasting our mutual sense of urgency, please forward it, whether adapted for yourself or in its entirety, to everyone you know.

Ellie joins me in expressing our respect and love for all, Peter
