Coincidentally, the first night of Hanakah fell on Dec 24th OR there is no correct spelling of Channukkah

The date is set both by the Solar and Lunar calendars. It falls around the darkest time of the Solar year, the Winter Solstice, as well as the dark of the Lunar month. That's why Hanuka moves around every year.

The holiday of Channakkah celebrates the return of the Light. The Menorah, or special candelabra, adds one more candle for each of the nights and the Light increases for eight days.

Latkes, (potato pancakes fried in oil) and dreidle, (a spinning top game of luck) is often played.

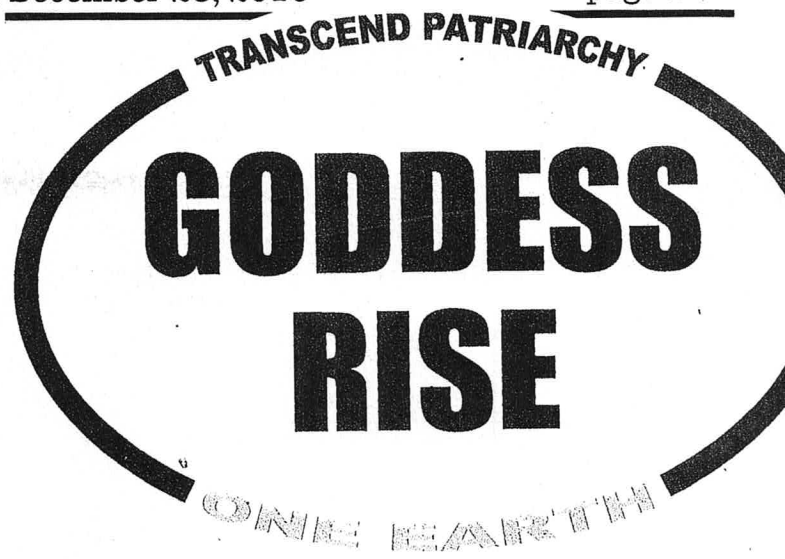

Bringing Khanuka into the present ... It is a story that reminds me of for the current climate.

The holiday remembers a political and social struggle, a battle of the adamant minority versus a powerful political majority. It celebrates the victory of the 'Small and the Few' versus the 'Big and Mighty'.

The literal translation of Hanukkah is "Re-Dedication. Now is the time for us re-dedicate ourselves to what is important, even crucial, in the coming years.

"Now When The Light Of Reason Fails and Fires Burn on The Sea" (Richard Farina)

LIGHT BROTHERS...

Brother Malcolm was 39...
when he was removed.
Recently returned from Mecca...
he was undergoing transformation
as he became Malik El Shabazz.

Brother John was 46...
when a military coup decided he wasn't good for their war plans.
John had shed much of his coldwarism,
he was determined to back us out of Vietnam,
and he spoke human potential like a poet.

Brother Martin was 39...
when evil's bullet silenced his voice.
He had taken on America's militarism.
The reason for his demise.

And the last nail in The 60's Hope Coffin... oh, what America could have been...
before violence brutally stepped in...
Our Lord's of Light fallen...
The Spirit man crawlin...
our quest for peace stilled...
Bobby was 42 when he was killed.
He had just won the California primary... and would have been President.
Instead we got tricky Dick... and Cambodia felt his bloody stick... as did we.

But my point is neither anger or grief...
instead hope and possibilities belief...
their Light remains unvanquished...
for the Dream resides in thee...
it sits in America's Sacred Heart...
yearning to be free.
It shines in our Collective Soul...
our destiny still to see.
They call to us... from inside... affirm the Light... and let it be...

So Come Forth LIGHT BROTHERS...
Malik, John, Martin, Bobby... and share your Light through me.

Food for Family was such a gift. Monday, The Coast Cafe kitchen was used (THANK YOU!) To create 100± meals.. ALL volunteer workers.. The gathering, the chopping, the cooking, the packaging for delivery + the delivery.. I would take my basket of jars in the morning + pick it up at 5pm.. The jars filled with a meal! The loving kindness of the people was a special gift to me, plus a meal! I say thank you so, each + every one, THANK YOU! Persie Norton

The Last Words - Presented by Point Reyes Books Wednesday, December 28, 7:00 PM to 10:00 PM FREE Heyday Books founder Malcolm Margolin will host a conversation with Steve Costa and Kate Levinson about their 14 years as the owners of Point Reyes Books. The store was sold this fall and the new owners will take over on January 1, 2017. The conversation will include the role of books in our times, and the limitations, regrets, rewards, and surprises of running an ethical and community-nurturing business. Plus music, dessert, and dancing. Presented by Point Reyes Books. About Point Reyes Books: A spirited, independent bookstore on the coast of Marin County, Point Reyes Books caters to the literary passions of both townsfolk and visitors. It offers lively events that attract authors, poets, scholars, storytellers, and audiences from near and far. It publishes the award-winning West Marin Review literary journal and is the founder and host of the Geography of Hope Conference. More than simply a business, Point Reyes Books is a center of conversation, creativity, and community. ptreyesbooks.com

The word is that smart and creative people are often sloppy. Hmmm

I am trying to get organized. I am also trying to chill out and visit with friends like we used to do. Trying being the operative word.

I am wishing you good, work good play, good health, Good friends and GREAT ART in the New Year. GOOD HOLIDAYS TO YOU ALL

I just thought to tell you about this upcoming radio show that I am really looking forward to. If you miss me listen in. My Guest on KWMR, Coastal Airwaves, Thursday December 29 at 4 pm will be Suzanna Millman. She is just back from a BIG BOOK TOUR for her Alive With the Dead –A Fly on the Wall with a Camera in its second printing. She has photographed the Grateful Dead as part of the band's inner circle from the mid-1980s. Susana will be joined by her husband, historian, and publicist for the Grateful Dead Dennis McNally who is now engrossed in curating a photo show for the California Historical Society that will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Summer of Love. It'll open at the Society's Gallery at 3rd and Mission in SF on May 11th and run all summer. I enjoy talking to Suzanna and Dennis and can't wait to hear what they're up to. So stop what you're doing and tune in wherever you are. Please join me at 90.5, 89.9, 92.3 or streaming live at KWMR.org Just thought you might like to know.

 Mark Lucanic, Charles Whitefield, Victoria
 Maier, Amber Distasi

Others Present: Vic Amoroso, Chas
 Lenhoff, Toby Nemeč, Blair, Zoe Gardner,
 Jennifer Pfiffer

Community Expression:

Downtown Park:

1. Park improvements- Trash cans. Chas will check Uline for matching of the ones here.
2. Irrigation system updates-Rob Pool is coming out to check out the pump in DT park 11-15-16 at 10am.
3. Zoe and Mark Butler met with an Arborist to look at the redwood, we need to have a drip line around the roots for deep soak once a week, as well as cutting away the grass around the base to clear the roots. Need mulch around base as well as a metal boarder.

Mesa Park:

1. Well pump replacement estimates, backflow pump broken, pump is pulling in plastic from the impeller. The representative from Norcal Pump works who looked at the motor estimated that we need a smaller motor (6k). Feels the casing is failing as well. Need new pump and casing. The toilets should be switched to BPUD water until the well is fixed. Charles, we should have a warranty for the pump from Weeks. Cost estimate for just replacing the pump is $5600-$6000. Charles will contact Weeks about guarantees, Mark will call Norcal for another quote on if we need to replace the casing and what the guarantees/warrantee are.
2. Park improvements. Need to order woodchips.
3. Graffiti removal. Chas is looking for paint to cover the pieces.

Treasurer's Report:

1. Discussion of treasurer duties and goals. Dylan and Amber are going to meet. Further discussion in January.
2. Upcoming audit schedule

Old News:

1. DT Park Chain Replacement
