ATTENTION! COMING THIS FRIDAY

On December 7th at 5PM the doors open to our Annual Winter Faire held at the Bolinas Community Center. The Faire continues on Saturday and Sunday beginning at 11AM and going to 6PM. There will be Thai food served from the kitchen all three days. The Hall will be filled with innovative hand crafted items made by our local creative craftsmen and women. I find that a handmade gift is more meaningful to the recipient than a factory made item. So please check the Faire first, before shopping over-the-hill, and save yourself time, energy, gas, frustration and stress.

Magi and I will have the same booth spot that we have had for about 30 years. We will have our best selling Wild Bolinas Blackberry Vinegar (Magi picked each and every luscious blackberry for this). The vinegar is good as a dressing for salads, cooked green veggies and marinade for meats. Dale Johnson takes a tablespoon of the vinegar followed by a half a glass of water every day as a tonic, and has for years, as well as using on other foods. One of our vinegar's four ingredients is Braggs organic apple cider vinegar.

Magi has sewn and filled some handsome lavender pillows in many sizes. Herbalists tell us that lavender is a nervine that enhances sleep and encourages relaxation. Try one on your night pillow.

Our traditional offering of catnip pillows (which I stuffed) is for the delight of one's cat, and they come in many colorful and cute fabrics. Make your kitty ecstatic and slap happy and watch their antics with one of these pillows!

We will also be making and selling our popular Christmas cookies made from a recipe from Barbara Pace. For many years we were the recipients of her delicious cookies, until I finally got the courage to ask her for the recipe, which she most graciously gave to me.

Conviviality, camaraderie, re-union, along with Caroling at 7PM with pianist Jennifer Meyer, will all be part of the Friday night festivities at the Winter Faire. So come on down and join in the fun, and support your local craftspersons.

Hot Off the Press: Bookselling in the Modern Age and on the Western Edge

Point Reyes Books is a thriving bookshop and cultural center in Western Marin. How does it thrive in the era of the "death of print" and the internet age, in a town of only hundreds?

Steve Sparks and Molly Parent, who have owned and operated Point Reyes Books since January 2017, will tell us, and discuss trends in publishing, selling, and more. They will also share some of their own personal favorite titles. Book addict and critic and TNS host Steve Heilig will interrogate them. It will be literary and illuminating!

Stephen was a manager and new book buyer at Green Apple Books in San Francisco for nearly ten years. In 2014, he opened and ran Green Apple Books on the Park, the newest branch of the 50-year-old institution. Stephen is a member of the steering committee for the Bay Area Book Festival, and serves on the boards of Dorothy, a publishing project, Open Letter Books, and the Center for the Art of Translation. He has served as a juror for various literary prizes prizes, including the Best Translated Book Award, the ABA's Indies Choice Award, and two NEA juries. His writing has appeared in the Paris Review Daily, Music & Literature magazine, Tin House, BOMB, and The Scofield. He is the editor of a series for Literary Hub about bookselling in the 21st century, and is currently writing a book about fog.

Molly worked at Green Apple Books from 2009 to 2012. When she's not at the bookstore on Saturdays or bookselling behind-the-scenes at home, Molly is the Programs and Communications Manager at 826 Valencia, a nonprofit organization in San Francisco dedicated to supporting under-resourced students with their writing skills. Since 2012 Molly has worked both in programs and in communications for the organization. She has been the editor of the 826 Quarterly and 642 Big Things to Write About: Young Writer's Edition, among other titles published by 826 Books. Molly has also served as a juror for the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards for young writers, and has led workshops for educators and creative professionals on how to use creative writing to empower youth and build community.

Dear Bolinas & Stinson Beach Families & Friends,

Thank you very much for a beautiful Saturday night at the BCC.

The Winter Square Dance with Evie Ladin Old Time Dance Party was a huge success thanks to your enthusiasm & your willingness to take a turn on the dance floor, learning new steps & the art of square dance movement improvisation. The word "allemande" is now forever etched in our memories.

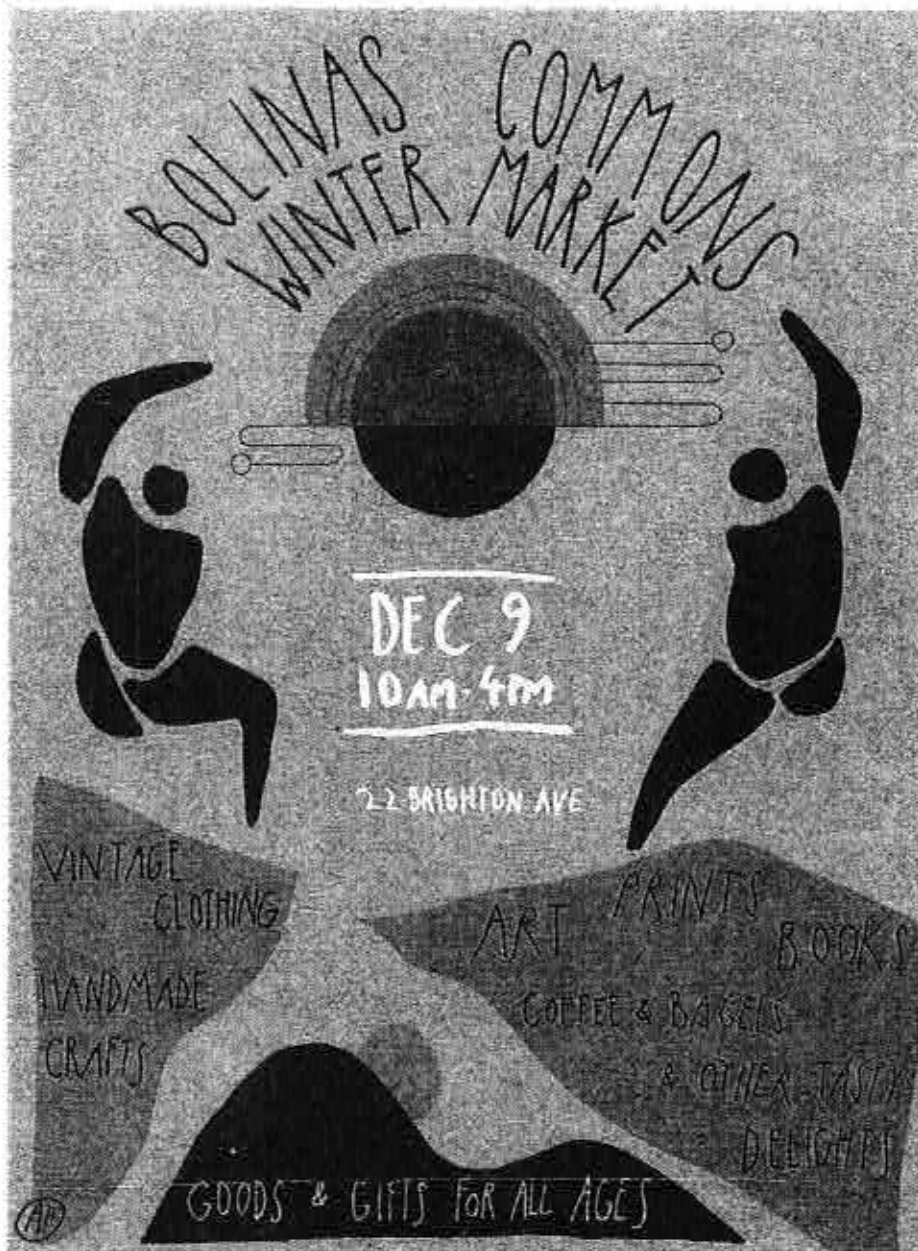

A huge thank you to our sponsors: BN Ranch, Thackrey & Company, Good Earth, Straus Family Creamery, Star Route Farms, Toby's Feed Barn, Palace Market & Bolinas People's Store.

Many thanks to our volunteers: Don Smith, Bethany Ojalvo, Ben Lowrance, Amber Distasi, Meadow Evans, Pawel Kruk, Jeff Clapp, Janis Yerington, Heidi Sandvoll, Lauren Pollak, Ricardo Lopez, Heather Clapp, Nuria Martinez, Georgla Woods, Xanthe & Solly, Perry Shimon & Temple Gunter.

Thank you, as well, to Omar Rifkin & the BCC.

It was such joy to be in the hall with you all!

Sincerely,
Bolinas-Stinson Beach School Foundation:
 Chelsie Fontan-Walker, Leah Vermulen Lopez, Juliette Delventhal, Bronwen Halsey Murch, John De Lorimier, Anny Densmore, Soo Choi, Molly Brown & Lisa Townsend
