Memorial Day On Monday

It was one of those splendid, special Days in our little village when EVERYTHING: all the music (BOBO TEMPO, LOS PADRES bands played) all the musicians, all the original music, all the singers, all the Dancers (even the two year olds), all the warm happy camaraderie amongst friends blended into one harmonious whole.

"It was Magic!" said Tony Delavalle the sax player in Bobo Tempo, "And boy did I NEED one of those"! His feeling spoke for myself and, I make a wild guess, for everyone there.

Mary Mansfield Barror

Thank you everyone for making our 'Only in Bolinas' Fundraiser a success!

On Saturday, May 18 we held our major fundraiser of the year at the Peace Barn. Funds made from this event will go toward our two-year capital campaign; Homes from the Heart and will be used to help fund our new projects. We are thrilled to announce that we netted close to $90,000, which we feel was a huge victory, the weather was not in our favor, but people still showed up and showed their support. This event was extremely heartwarming because of everyone who helped make it a success.

Over 20 local residents donated goods, services and experiences to our auction, and another 20 helped as volunteers and hosts. Over 40 people made donations through our auction. We also had some champions at the end of the night help us battle the rain in what ended as quite an adventure. After hours of torrential rain during the entire event, the musicians and caterers parked alongside the Peace Barn to load up at the end of the night and quickly found themselves completely stuck in the mud. Ben Lowrance (one of the beloved Bolinas School bus drivers and our shuttle driver for the evening) joined the others to try and help get these vans out of the mud. Mickey Murch was tracked down and came right over with his tractor and successfully pulled the musician and one of the catering vans out to freedom. A short while later, once Mickey was gone, we all realized that a third van was stuck. Mickey couldn't be reached this time, AAA was contacted to no avail, along with some other people. We were all racking our brains trying to determine who we could call at 10pm on a rainy Saturday night. Then Mirta Guzman had the brilliant idea to give Hector Mora a call. He was there within minutes! Hector was able to pull the van out - cheers among all the wet and tired caterers and remaining cast of characters erupted! Though the mud was relentless and did cause further issues, we were amazed by the willingness to help our neighbors and friends showed us.

This is what community looks like, everyone coming together in all forms to help make a difference and help the greater good. We are so proud of Bolinas on a daily basis, but this evening and through the planning for this event, we got to witness moments over and over again that were reminders of how special we have it here in Bolinas.

Sincerely,

Evie, Leilani and Arianne

DEAR BOLINAS COMMUNITY:

My family and I deeply thank all of you for your compassionate and generous responses to our sadness at Bill's death.

I am so grateful to be part of this community.

Subject: Monarchs in 1959

A thought for this day...

While thinking of my forebears this Memorial Day, I read a letter dated 3-4-59 from my grandfather, known here as Mr. Mohn, who preceded me on this Overlook property where I live. He mused, "...the ever-present Monarchs are floating about as though Bolinas were the Elysian Fields." We wistfully mourn their not being thus anymore.

West Marin's Best

From VICKISA

A rare email about a rare radio show and more Stay tuned please On Coastal Airwaves, May 30th, Thursday 4 to 5 on KWMR 90.5, 89.9, streaming kwmr.org my guest will be Sandy Sohcot. She is making a difference as the Director and originator of The World As It Could Be Human Rights Education Program which she developed to raise awareness about the Human rights framework. Her initial work evolved to become a full program teaching about the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. I had no idea about this I am looking forward to this conversation. I met Sandy when she served as Executive Director of the Rex Foundation, to help renew the Foundation in the absence of direct Grateful Dead concert funding. There is lots more to talk about it and hopefully this cold will go away and I will be able to talk.

Gallery Route One's Artists in the Schools Program (AIS) and Latino Photography Project (LPP) presents: SHELTER June 1 - June 25, 2019 Location: Toby's Feed Barn Gallery, 11250 Highway 1 Point Reyes Station I've been working on this really large Mural all about shelter with the artist in the schools program and doing these self reflective portraits Frida Kahlo style with the eighth graders as a right of passage and I love what the students have made. pretty it's all coming together. Here Beatrice is painting the trees. BIG PROJECT Lots of Kids.

Opening reception: Saturday, June 1, 3-5 pm, during Western Weekend. The parade is Sunday The gallery will be open then too and it is really a blast especially for kids. I quite like it too. I might go if i feel better . I do not want to share cold.

I have been moving pretty fast and have a lot going on right now including Dance Palace summer camp starting on 17 June. We still have room for a couple of Counselors in Training ,13 to 15 but the rest of the camp seems full as a tick.

June 8th O'hanlon Center for the Arts in Mill Valley is celebrating its 50th Anniversary with an Open House 10 to 4 enjoy their style.

My friend is having what will be a beautiful exhibition Toni Littlejohn: Terra Firma/Terra Formando, The San Francisco Bay Model Visitor Center. My favorite thing about this place is the little sign for bolinas on the toothpick has been cut out it's just cracks me up every time. Not in SF. 2100 Bridgeway, Sausalito, CA 94965 June 11, - July 20, Opening Reception: Saturday, June 15, 1-3 pm Opening Reception ALL IN Gallery Route Ones Members show: Saturday, June 22, 3 - 5pm Artists talks 2:30 I am in my studio finishing up my book from my trip to the New Orleans French Quarter Festival in New Orleans in April and I'm excited about it and this band Tuba Skinny. snapshot of new book pages.

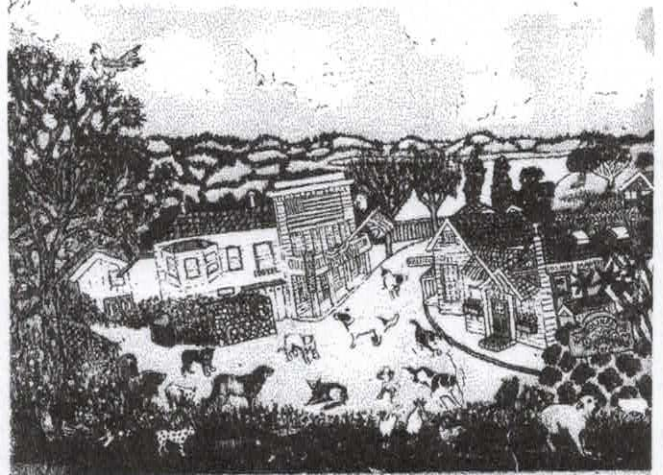

Dance Palace Camp starts June 17 We are planning now for the fun to come. →

I love when Virginia Linder comes into the gallery for a viewing of art. i view her as art. I just found out we have the same birthday. Aug 22 FYI and i thought you

Memories are made of this:

Memorable Memorial Day – the weather a bit dismal at first got better and better as the day progressed and by the late afternoon it was sunny and warm - perfect for dancing and hanging out in the Plaza.

The music was great all day thanks to Magi's sound mixing. Delightful duets by Camilla and her husband John.

The reunion of Bobo Tempo was memorable with Jeff Commons back in action and the Onarato brothers on percussion, Luke "Duke" Anderson on guitar and Tony Della Valle on sax.

Anny led a group singing close harmonies that included students from Natura (formerly RDI) Bob Densmore backed them up on guitar and bass.

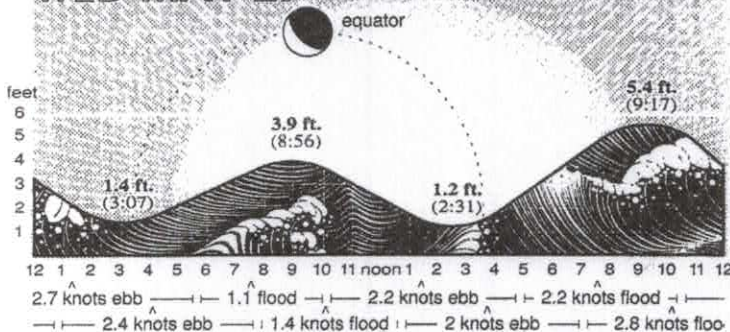

Finally Los Padres really rocked the Plaza. Jacob sang beautifully in Spanish – "Arriba Bolinas" Both the Gringo and the Latino communities edged one step closer.

Jacob's singing was backed up by Julio, Ethan Okamura on guitar. Doug Lee on stand-up bass and drums by the amazingly syncopated Michael Pinkham assisted by Tony and Sean Onarato.

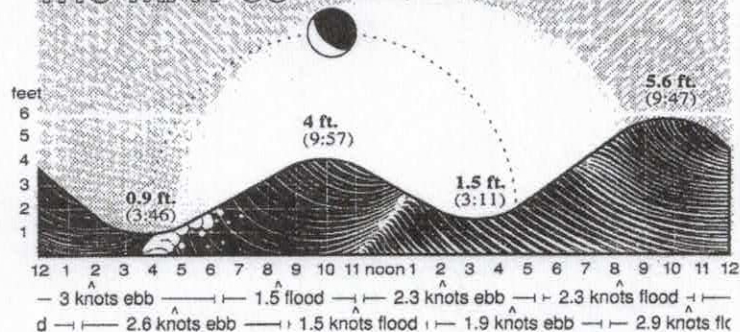

It was a fine community celebration that made for a memorable Memorial Day – honoring the war dead by dancing, partying, eating, helping and honoring the living in this unique place. Thank you Community, may you thrive and prosper.
