The three excerpts below came from a book called, "Thrive", published by National Geographic, By Dan Buettner

ARMANDO FUENTE'S GRANDFATHER'S RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS:

"Drink without getting drunk
Love without suffering jealousy
Eat without over-indulging Never argue
And once in a while,
with great discretion,
misbehave"

"You can choose to be more optimistic, if you work at it. Humor leads to social bonding due to shared positive emotions and the discharge of negative ones"

Nicole Fuentes

"Danes score highest for trust in the World. This trust is traced to the Vikings, who told terrible things happening to people who didn't keep their word!"

"Live in simple faith
Just as this trusting cherry flowers, fades and falls"

Issa

"There are no friends or enemies,
Only teachers"

Dalai Lama

"Without inner peace, it is not possible to have world peace"

Dalai Lama

"So the challenge for each of us is to find some method, be it meditation, prayer, slowing down, or self-reflection to bring us back to our softer innate nature, existing behind the hardened shell of inner confusion and turmoil. However, the goal is not to always feel nice and peaceful, but to be with our experience and feelings just as they are; in turn, this simple let-it-be approach gives rise to a sense of well-being. And being Kinder, more embracing to our own inner turmoil makes us feel more at ease and kinder to others as well."

Pat Donegan

BEHIND MOUNTAINS

Behind mountains there are mountains,
specters of challenge.

Do we rise to the occasion,
or do we succumb to the challenge?
Or do we look deep inside,
and do the best we can?

Behind mountains there are mountains,
challenging our own best thoughts of ourselves.

Thoughts that challenge
the essence of our selves.

Behind mountains there are mountains,
that in our moments of reality
we see that in the continuity of all humanity,
we are all flawed, we all make mistakes,
we all have the ability to see beyond flaws,
to embrace the greater sphere of the UNIVERSE.....

"And if the earth no longer knows your name,
Whisper to the silent earth: I'm flowing....

To the flashing water say: I AM"

Hardware Store Parking News

Dear Bolinas Neighbors and Friends,

We understand that parking can be a nightmare on weekends these days in Bolinas. But it's even worse if you're a business owner trying to keep people out of your few spots so actual customers can shop in your store.

We have tried to help people out when they need to do a quick errand in town on the weekends, but unfortunately, last weekend turned into a complete fiasco and this is not a one-time event. A local employee chose to leave their car right in front of our store all day, people doing their laundry parked there and there were many cars in our back lot and we had no idea to whom they belonged. One person from Oregon came to me and said that his friend told him we offer parking in our back lot. Really? Someone's truck with a camper shell was there all day and we had to close it in because the owner hadn't returned by 5. I have no idea whose that was. We had to chase down other parkers to remind them to leave by 5 pm. All this made it a very stressful day and difficult to do my actual job.

Because of all this, we will no longer be able to offer parking in our back lot and hope that people will try and respect that and also that parking in our front lot is for customers while they are shopping only. We are not able to accommodate your parties or sporting events with parking. Please don't buy something and then assume you can stay in the front lot to do other errands unless you have permission and don't plan on staying long.

I spoke with the sheriff about towing the car that was in our front lot all day and he said that we have to have lots of large Marin County No Parking signs that have specific ordinance numbers on them. Now I have to purchase those and hang them all over our fence, obscuring the lovely signs that were created for us by the Bolinas Summer Camp last year. I'm sorry that a few people have spoiled this asset for many, but there is just too much liability and stress involved with what started out as a couple of folks needing parking to go to church on Sunday. I suggest that anyone who is as frustrated as I am with the town parking write to Supervisor Rodoni and anyone else you can think of to create a local parking permit or some kind of solution to this terrible problem in our town.

Thank you for your attention,

Karen and Tom Dibblee, Owners

From Vickisa

Last Call: My show at Gallery Route One, Seeing Music is closing July 1 with a party 3 to 5. I hope you get to see it. You might be tired of hearing about it but I really worked hard to get it all up on the walls.

My guest on Coastal Airwaves on KWMR this Thursday 4 to 5 will be Lily Youseph. She is the director and founder of Tangible Hoe and puts over 80 children through school, gives the families oil and rice so that the girls won't be put to work, gives them uniforms, and medical expenses. I think it's a wonderful organization and can't wait to hear what has happened since O last I had her on my show. She's been getting some awards and having some experiences I want to hear about.

Gal Holiday is coming to the Big Easy in Petaluma July 5th! I'm excited because every time I go to New Orleans to the French Quarter Fest no matter what's happening if she's playing I end up watching Gal Holiday because I just love her music and I really enjoyed her too. I'm hoping to get a posse and go up there. She does not disappoint. "Vanessa Niemann aka Gal Holiday paints a masterpiece on her new "Lost & Found." She's completely come into her own as a bandleader, songwriter and singer. Everyone needs to own this record and support Gal & her fine band out there on the road. Boot Scootin' Music!!"
