TODAY’s HEARSAY BROUGHT TO YOU BY:
((STUART CHAPMAN: PASTE-UP and PRINTING)))
((JUNE MCADAMS: ADS)))
((ALEX BLEEKER: PRESS)))
((& YOU: EVERYONE IS A REPORTER!)))
"One should forgive, under any injury," says the Mahabharata. "It hath been said that the continuation of species is due to man's being forgiving. Forgiveness is holiness; by forgiveness the universe is held together. Forgiveness is the might of the mighty; forgiveness is sacrifice; forgiveness is quiet of mind. Forgiveness and gentleness are the qualities of the self-possessed. They represent eternal virtue."

-Paramahansa Yogananda
Autobiography of a Yogi

THE DOOR
There was a door that was in front of me should I open it or not or continue along my way?

This time I braved the unknown, and all my fears and doubts, and opened it to find a Universe on the other side filled with love, compassion, understanding and wisdom. A connection to everything else.

I reflected a moment on all that which was doubt, and found it had disappeared like smoke in the wind.

'Magi' William Barror

Now I pray that each and every being's true nature be revealed, that we each see clearly our inherent truth and find liberation from the shackles of suffering and difficulty imposed by the limitations of our mind.

Spirit, grant me: The vision and wisdom of the elder she-egle
The fierce focus of the lioness
The fluid leadership of wild geese
Small creatures' ways of stillness
Beaver's strong and beautiful cozy lodge
The devotion of a dearly beloved loyal dog.

Fill my spirit with the wild abandon-infused winds of autumn that keep positive and negative space moving and changing, charged and clear.

Fill my inner circle with the Beloved in the form of lover, partner, true friends, family, truth and laughter.

May my work reflect the light and the shadows that are my being.
May I have clarity.
May I know when and where to begin and when and how to stop.
May I always have the strength to ask the hard question,
to peer deeply into the dark pools,
the patience to wait for sediment to clear.

—Marly Tilson
"Artist's Prayer"

-------
Refreshing, the wind against the waterfall
As the moon hangs, a lantern, on the peak
And the bamboo window glows.
In old age mountains
Are more beautiful than ever.
My resolve:
That these bones be purified by rocks.

Here's some food for thought on Labor Day

-- Michael Rafferty, Publisher

from an address of Abraham Lincoln to congress:

"It is not needed, nor fitting here [in discussing the Civil War] that a general argument should be made in favor of popular institutions; but there is one point, with its connections, not so hackneyed as most others, to which I ask a brief attention. It is the effect to place capital on an equal footing with, if not above, labor, in the structure of government. It is assumed that labor is available only in connection with capital; that nobody labors unless somebody else, owning capital, somehow by the use of it induces him to labor. This assumed, it is next considered whether it is best that capital shall hire laborers, and thus induce them to work by their own consent, or buy them, and drive them to it without their consent. Having proceeded thus far, it is naturally concluded that all laborers are either hired laborers or what we call slaves. And further, it is assumed that whoever is once a hired laborer is fixed in that condition for life.

Now, there is no such relation between capital and labor as assumed, nor is there anything such as a free man being fixed for life in the condition of a hired laborer. Both these assumptions are false, and all inferences from them are groundless.

"Labor is prior to, and independent of, capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor, and could never have existed if labor had not first existed. Labor is the superior of capital, and deserves much the higher consideration. Capital has its own rights, which are as worthy of protection as any other rights."

Thank you Bolinas Bakers and Helpers at the dessert table. The bake goods were plentiful and delicious and with all the hard working helpers at the table it was not only fun but successful.

Thanks so much, June McAdams

REMINDER: NO ENTRY TO SPRAYFIELDS AT THE BCPUD SEWER POND PROPERTY

This notice is to remind everyone that the sprayfields at the BCPUD’s sewer pond property at Mesa and Overlook Roads (across from the Firehouse) are part of our sewage treatment plant. Disposing of treated wastewater via spray irrigation onto the fields is one of the steps of the treatment process. Please, no one (including but not limited to people and their pets/working animals) should enter into the sprayfields, whether or not the sprays are on.

We have posted the fields with many signs indicating that entry is prohibited. Please, observe the signs and stay on the paths on the perimeter of the sprayfields while on this property, and keep your animals off the fields, as well. Thank you very much for your cooperation and please contact me if you have any questions.

ATTENTION PROPERTY OWNERS
REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The Marin Housing Authority (MHA) is inviting property owners in Marin County to submit proposals for participation in the Housing Choice Voucher (also known as Section 8) Project Based Voucher (PBV) Program. Under this program, if the successful bidder is awarded the Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) contract, MHA will make housing assistance payments to the owner for units leased and occupied by eligible individuals/families taken from the MHA waitlist. Proposals will be accepted only for existing units in developments where no more than 25% of the units are project-based. This cap will not apply if the PBV units over the 25% cap are leased only to elderly families, disabled families or families receiving supportive services. Single family properties of 1 to 4 units are exempt from the 25% limit. All units must be in decent, safe and sanitary condition.

Rental assistance may be provided for up to a total of 50 units to successful bidder(s).

All operating expenses are the responsibility of the owner. Rents that are established for the development will be commensurate with comparable rents for similar rental units in the area in which the development is located, based on an appraisal. In all cases, however, rents cannot exceed the maximum allowable payment standard as established by MHA for the Housing Choice Voucher Program.

All new admissions to units under the Project Based Voucher Program may only be selected from the MHA Housing Choice Voucher waiting list.

Owner proposals will be evaluated using, among other factors outlined in the RFP, the following basic criteria:

- Experience as an owner in the tenant-based voucher program and owner compliance with the owner’s obligations under the tenant-based program;
- Extent to which the development furthers MHA goal of deconcentrating poverty and expanding housing and economic opportunities;
- If applicable, extent to which services for special populations are provided on site or in the immediate area for occupants of the property; and
- Extent to which units are occupied by families that are eligible to participate in the PBV program.

Participation in the Project Based Voucher Program requires compliance with Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity requirements.

For additional submission requirements, including critical deadlines, interested parties need to review the Request for Proposals for Project Based Vouchers for Existing Housing Units (RFP). The RFP may be reviewed at https://www.marinhousing.org/business-opportunities.html, or at MHA’s San Rafael office, 4020 Civic Center Dr., San Rafael, CA. Fax and e-mail proposals cannot be accepted. Owners will be notified by letter of the acceptance or rejection of their proposals. All proposals MUST be received no later than 4:30 PM PST, September 23, 2016.
